Ashanti Customs.
In Ashanti many families are forbidden the use of certain meats. In like manner others are forbidden to wear clothes of a certain color.

Got the Habit Later.
In a sermon preached in a small church in Glasgow the pastor, after inveighing against slothfulness, said by way of climax: "Do you think Adam and Eve went about the garden of Eden with their hands in their pockets?"

The Foxglove.
The flowers of the foxglove are like the fingers of a glove. The name of foxglove is said to be a corruption of "folk's glove" or "fairy's glove."

Textile Fabrics.
The word textile means any kind of woven fabric made from wool, cotton, silk, flax, hemp, ramie, goat, camel's hair and beaver, or the filaments drawn out of leaves, gold, or any other metal, all of which are webs formed of textiles.

The Proof.
"There must have been a burglar in my room last night," remarked Slowpay at the breakfast table.
"Mercy!" ejaculated his fellow boarders. "How do you know? Did you lose something?"
"On the contrary, I found a roll of bills on the floor right by the window."
Whereat there was a general scramble back to the rooms, while the landlady remained to give Slowpay a second helping of poached eggs. — Fun Magazine.

The Horrors of War.
A Bulgarian maiden named Poyghazxy-urroguzar.
Loved a soldier whose name was Mialklophaxzas.
When he left for the front
He said, with a grant,
"I'll meet you at Ubratzkyknopmansagrifane abozarar."
—Oleinnati Enquirer.

Too Deep For Him.
A rookle had joined the navy and was being drilled with his shipmates on a pier.
"Fall in!" came the order.
Immediately he fell into the water.
"Two deep!" was the next order.
Rookle spluttering in the water—
Why didn't ye tell me it was too deep before I fell in?—New York American.

After Election.
"Tis time for us now," the voter said.
"I've think of other things—
Of making dough for daily bread
And paying rent by Jinn!"
—Judge.

A Fair Warning.
Persistent treading over his accident insurance to his powerful wife—Look here, next time you fall out with me you'd better take care. This policy says that when I suffer from circumstances over which I have no control I don't get anything. —Flegende Blatter.

Orchestra Pleases.
The Empire harp orchestra who opened a return engagement at Sherry's theatre last night proved as popular as on their former appearance here and those who heard their selections rendered at each of the three performances expressed themselves as highly pleased. Not only do they play well but they "fit the pictures" with appropriate music. They will be here for a short time only and all lovers of good music should avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing them.

Can You Doubt It!
When the Proof Can Be So Easily Investigated.
When so many grateful citizens of La Grande testify to benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills, can you doubt the evidence? The proof is not far away—it is almost at your door. Read what a resident of La Grande says about Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you demand more convincing testimony?
Mrs. M. E. Nibley, 2106 Third St., La Grande, Ore., says "My back ached and I had severe pains through my right side. I was all crippled up and I found it hard to do my housework. One of my relatives had used Doan's Kidney Pills and advised me to try them. Two boxes drove away the aches and pains, and there has been no return of the trouble. Everything I said about Doan's Kidney Pills when I recommended them before, I willingly confirm now."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
