It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains; heals burns, cuts and bruises. Unsurpassed for piles. 25c at all druggists.

WINTER GRIPS SMITH MT.

DEEP SNOW AND COLD SEVERE. IN WALLOWA COUNTY.

Millers Hauling Logs for Coming Season's Run.

Smith Mountain, Wallowa county Jan. 22.—(Special)—Old King Winter is with us again. There is now 30 inches of snow on the level. The weather has been very cold for the last week, but is more mild again, and sleighing is fine.

Mrs. May Bigg and her son Jim were down from Joseph and spent a few days last week visiting her mother, Grandma Conley.

Jay Skillings and brother came in from Summerville to spend the winter on their ranch on Smith's mountain, where they intend doing considerable fencing before spring work opens up.

Mrs. Jennie Knowles and nieces Misses Ruth and Clara Hendersen, have returned to Elgin, after spending the holidays with her sister, Mrs. Walter Miller at the Walowa fish hatchery.

The Minam store and postoffice has changed hands, S. C. Graham having sold to Mr. Boswell who is now running the store, postoffice and hotel. We very much regret losing Mr. and Mrs. Graham from our community, but wish them success wherever they go into business.

The Scott brothers are doing a very rushing business at their mill on Smith's Mountain, cutting and hauling in logs for their spring run. They had a very successful run last fall here at the new mill site, where they recently moved their mill from Crick Flat where they had been in the sawmill business for many years.

There has been a very good attendance at the Conlay school considering the bad weather. There are now 18 pupils enrolled. Mrs. E. Barton of La Grande is teaching and is well liked by all.

The attendance at Sunday school was small last Sunday, the roads being drifted so badly it was nearly impossible to get a team through the drifts.

Chas. Wyatt, a very successful farmer of Pine Grove, is driving his fat porkers to market at Elgin this week.

Grandma Conley spent one day last week visiting at the home of Mrs. E. B. Fisher.

"THE GIRL FROM TOKIO."

Snappy Play Adopted From the Germans to be Seen at the Steward.

"The Girl From Tokio," a snappy interesting farce is announced as the attraction at the Steward theatre for one night engagement, Friday Jan. 31

The farce is an English adaptation from the German, and offers a refreshingly wholesome and delightfully amusing entertainment. There are three acts filled with laugh provoking complications of the right sort, and a very clever and interesting plot serves to keep matters interesting.

Of course there is also the necessary touch of heart interest in the love affair of the young people, which also helps to complicate matters. The situations are unique and mixups due to misunderstandings are decidedly humorous.

The fun of the piece is woven around the attempts of Bartley Swift an importer of Japanese art goods to hide from his wife, who is very jealous of him, an early love affair of his with an actress, whom he jilted in Tokio, Japan.

The actress afterwards married the father of Swift's wife, who dies and leaves her the bulk of his property.

The unexpected and undesired appearance of his step-mother-in-law at his home, in whom he discovers his former sweetheart, nearly gives Swift nervous prostration; and in his desire to hide the state of affairs from his family, Swift soon involves himself in a series of complications that are excruciatingly funny.

"The Girl From Tokio," is presented by a competent company, headed by Edmond Fordo, Julia Weston, Adelaide Matthews, Lee Hahn, Martin Sherry Snyder, May Hoogen, Jane Hanna, Henry Travers, John Raymond, Allan Brande and others.

Could Suffer for Joy.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no superior. Try them. Every bottle's guaranteed. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Surely Banishes CATARRH

Where there's catarrh there's thousands of catarrh germs. You can't get rid of catarrh unless you kill these germs.

You can't kill them with stomach medicine or sprays because they can't get where germs are.

You can kill these germs with Booth's HYOMEI, a penetrating, antiseptic, balsamic air that you breathe a few times a day directly over the raw, sore, germ infested membrane. It does not contain morphine or any habit forming drug.

For catarrh, croup, coughs, and colds. HYOMEI is sold on money back plan by the Newlin Drug company. Complete outfit, $1.00. Extra bottles of Booth's HYOMEI if afterwards needed, only 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing.

If you drink because of a craving for stimulants—if you've reached the stage where nothing will satisfy excepting rough, high-proof, strong whiskey—our story is not for you. But if it's mellowness, age and flavor you're looking for—you'll like Cyrus Noble.

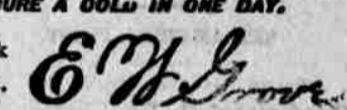

Because it's pure—because it's palatable—because you don't have to dilute it with water to be able to swallow it. It costs no more than any other good whiskey.
