EARN SOMETHING DURING YOUR SPARE TIME. The Observer has an attractive proposition for one person—either lady or man—in every school district in Union and Wallowa counties outside of La Grande, to act as correspondent. Space rate will be paid for all news, provided at least one news letter each week is sent in. This work can be done during spare moments. Checks for services will be mailed each month. Remember, a correspondent is wanted at every postoffice and in every, as well as in each school district. No previous experience is necessary, as all that is required is telling the news of the community as it occurs. Write at once and be the person to represent the Observer in your community, thus making some extra money for yourself. THE OBSERVER, La Grande, Oregon

END DISGUSTING CATARRH

Money Back From the Newlin Drug Co if Catarrhal Misery Does Not Leave You.

Try the sure way. Breathe Booth's HYOMEI over the sore, germ infected membrane, kill the germs and heal the sore spots.

Use the little inhaler that comes with each $1.00 outfit five times during the day. At night use the vapor breathing treatment as directed.

Booth's HYOMEI does not contain any harmful drug. It is Australian eucalyptus combined with effective Listerian antiseptics.

When the bottle of HYOMEI that comes with your outfit is gone you can get another for 50 cents. Just breathe it—no stomach dosing. The Newlin Drug company.

OFFICERS OF BANK NAMED

OLD DIRECTORS ARE RE-ELECTED.

Surplus Fund Is Added at End of First Year.

Imbler, Jan. 29.—(Special)—Following the annual meeting of stockholders of the State bank of Imbler, at which the same board which has had the affairs of this bank in charge for the past ten months was re-elected, the directors held their first meeting for the new year and elected the following officers: Geo. L. Cleaver, president; Clay W. Fox, vice president; Sherwood Williams, cashier, and Guy J. Glenn, assistant cashier. Five hundred dollars of the past year's earnings were carried to the surplus fund of the bank, which shows the bank has been doing a prosperous business since it opened its doors on March 4th last, as well as the fact that its policy is the same as all well managed banks in creating and adding to a substantial surplus from the beginning, thereby giving greater security to their depositors.

SALT LAKE LIKES SHOW.

Girl From Tokio Wins Favor in Salt Where It Meets Public.

Of "The Girl From Tokio," coming here next Friday, the Salt Lake Republican has this to say:

Brimming of brand-new farcical predicaments, few of which may be accused of intimacy with the comedy of yesterday, "The Girl from Tokio" opened last night at the Salt Lake theatre. Almost from the rise of the curtain commence situations made keenly delicate by drawing room politeness. Cleverness and highly artistic portrayals prevail, the leading role being taken by Julia Morton, who won distinction in "What Happened to Jones."

"The Girl from Tokio" is an adaptation from the German farcical success of Robert Pohl, which on the European stage was lauded as one of the cleverest bits of fun and merriment of many a theatrical season. It was thoroughly enjoyed last night by a large audience, principally because of its newness, the fine mixture of character study and its portrayal of what might actually happen in real life should one fall in love in Japan, come home and marry a new love and find at one's heels a muddled French diplomat.

In brief, Bartley Swift, a young American, engages in business in Japan and soon finds himself heels over head in love with Nancy Noyes, winsome English actress. There springs up a rival in Count Boni de Brassie, a furious French diplomat. The Frenchman drives Swift back to America. Believing himself only knee deep in love with the actress, he marries Blanche Miller, an American heiress, and is about to settle down in bliss.

Upon the scene comes the winsome Nancy, called to the Swift home as a governess. She has all the love letters of Swift and an apparent craving for his love. The Frenchman has followed her, still looking for the good of all rivals.

Relief comes when it develops the fair Nancy is the widow of the late Edmund Miller and that her mission was not that of governess but to settle the Miller estate.

Edmund Forde possessed all the appearance of a man in domestic trouble, at least from the footlight interpretation. He presents an admirable portrayal of Bartley Swift. Al Ian Brander also appears to have studied the wrath of French diplomats crossed in love, possibly more from real life and his interpretation was appreciated very keenly. John Raymond also contributed the best of stage art in telling how a ministerial tutor looks when under the influence of "Scotch." Henry Travers as Frank Cutting, Swift's friend, and Miss May Holton as Molly Miller pay juvenile roles.

Chronic Constipation Cured.

"Five years ago I had the worst case of chronic constipation I ever knew of and Chamberlain's Tablets cured me," writes S. F. Fish, Brooklyn, Mich. For sale by all dealers.

It takes five different aged whiskies to make Cyrus Noble---each one good in itself. But it takes blending and re-ageing to bring out the best in each---to "round-out" the flavor.

WEEK BY WEEK.

Each Week Appear the Statements of La Grande Residents.

Last week it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. The week before, it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. The week before, and for many weeks before it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. And again this week it is a La Grande woman. You are not asked to act upon the word of a stranger. The best guidance that is humanly possible to give you—the encouraging word of neighbors, is always given. Mrs. Thomas Budge, 1912 Third St., La Grande, Ore., says: "One of our family complained a great deal of backache, caused by the constant farrowing he got at his work. Sometimes he had to lay off for several days. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped him greatly. We think there is nothing like them, and wouldn't be without a supply in the house. I advise all kidney sufferers to try Doan's Kidney Pills. You may continue to publish the testimonial I gave after they were first used in our family."
