WHEAT MARTS SHOW SPURTS

BALKAN WAR SITUATION HELPS PRICES HERE.

Vegetables Supply Continues Good—Stock Prices Reviewed.

As a result of the decision of the Turks and Bulgarians to continue fighting all the wheat markets of the world took a spurt upward. Although the shipments on the coast were heavy, the price did not sag and it is not likely to do so. Bluestem is now selling at 94c@96 on the pacific coast and it is thought that in a week or so the price will have gone to $1.00.

Vegetables More Plentiful. Shipments of vegetables to Front street in Portland have been better this week and the result is that all of the towns on the line have fresh garden stuffs. The La Grande merchants continue to supply head lettuce and celery and home-grown leaf lettuce to the trade and will do so unless the price becomes so prohibitive that people cannot afford them. This will hardly hold of lettuce and some few other things since the California market will have recovered from the frost by the first of March, and the supply will be good.

Cattle and Hogs Easy
Cattle and hogs have held their own and the outlook is for little change. Few cattle were on the Portland market and the sales of hogs took up the attention of the buyers. Following are the corrected quotations to date:

Flour, Feed and Grain.
Wild Hay—(retail)—$12.00.
Timothy—$15.00 (retail).
Alfalfa hay—$12.00 (retail).
Shorts—$1.45 per cwt.
Oats—$1.50 per cwt.
Bran—$1.25 per cwt

The popularity of the Gossard Front Lacing corsets has been followed by a number of imitators. Other than lacing in front all these imitations are totally lacking in the essentials which make Gossard corsets so extremely desirable.
Every woman who investigates buys a Gossard corset.
A complete line of all models and sizes always on hand. Prices $3.50, $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.
