A Free Hotel.
At Miramar, on the island of Majorca, in the Mediterranean, is a free hotel, where accommodations may be had for three days upon application to the agents of the Archduke Luis Salvador of Austria. It is a beautiful spot, and the entire neighborhood is full of attractions to the traveler. Attendants in charge look after the welfare of guests, who must, however, provide for their own food. Beds, linen and table appointments they receive gratis, and bread and wine can be obtained very reasonably. It is said that this provision is due to the gratification the Austrian owners felt years ago when they first came to live at Miramar. Such peace and such loveliness, they felt, should be shared by all lovers of nature who passed that way.—Argonaut.

One of the Antiques.
"There," said the man who had purchased a pedigree that reached back to the "coming over" of William the Conqueror, "is a gold snuffbox that was used by one of my great-great-grandfathers."
"Very interesting," replied the gentleman who was examining the thing. "Very interesting, indeed. I had no idea that the 'made in Germany' mark had been in use as long as that."—Chicago Record-Herald.

A Sad Mistake.
The wife cooked a dish of prunes, which appeared to find no favor with members of the family. The prunes "went begging" for a day or two until the husband, tired of seeing them, decided to get rid of them.
The next evening he found a big dish of prunes at his place.
"You liked those other prunes so well," said his wife, "that I thought I would cook some more."—Indianapolis News.

He Took After Mother.
The star pupil arose at the school entertainment to declaim his piece.
"Lend me your ears," he bawled.
"Huh," sneered the mother of the opposing but defeated pupil, "that's Sarah Jane Dornan's boy. He wouldn't be his mother's son if he didn't want to borrow something."—Exchange.

Again.
Marie—I hear that you are going to be married again. Edith—Again? Why, I've never been married yet. Marie—No, but I can't recall the number of times you were "going to be."

Reserved.
Thomas—That Miss Wadleigh is rather reserved, isn't she? Jack—Very much so. I reserved her for life last night.

Love, a cough, smoke and money can not long be hid.—French Proverb.
