THE Gossard CORSETS

They Lace In Front

Front lacing is not the only requirement of a perfect corset. The popularity of the Gossard Front Lacing corsets has been followed by a number of imitators. Other than lacing in front all these imitations are totally lacking in the essentials which make Gossard corsets so extremely desirable. Every woman who investigates buys a Gossard corset. A complete line of all models and sizes always on hand. Prices $3.50, $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.

HEAVY SNOW OVER STARKEY

NIGHT AFTER GROUND HOG DAY SEES SNOW.

off Hay Stacks. Farmers Forced to Shovel Deep Snow

Starkey, Feb. 5.—(Special) — The ground hog failed to see his shadow, but if he stayed out over night he probably could not have found his way back as that night there was an eight inches of snow, which makes makes the ranchers look blue, for it means for them to shovel off the hay stacks so as to be able to feed outside stock.

M. A. J. Sullivan has returned from Pendleton.

Mrs. Dick Smith has left for her home at Island City after making her friends a pleasant visit.

Mr and Mrs. Henry Switcher of Pendleton are visiting with her mother, Mrs. Kate Burnett.

Ralph Sullivan has had a serious attack of the grippe but is improving.

Mr. Hillhouse has taken a contract to supply the Euphrical ranch with a year's wood.

Starkey will soon lose one of her best families. John Robertson has bought a ranch in the Willamette valley. We will all be sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Robertson.

Mr. W. Briggs is making good use of the sleighing hauling up lumber to make more improvements on his place.

Mr. Dick Furnett is busy hauling his seed grain from the Stockdale ranch to be ready for spring sowing. There are quite a number of amateur trappers on all the creeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smith treated the young folks with a social dance on the evening of the first. Everyone enjoyed it and hope to be invited again.

O'Connell-Kennedy Fight Draw

(Pendleton Live Wire.)

Eddie O'Connell of Portland and Jack Kennedy of Hermiston went to a draw last night at the Oregon theater in a finish wrestling match. At the end of two hours of severe tests of strength, neither man secured a fall. The superior skill of the champion was successfully met by the agility of Kennedy who through being the stronger, broke away from hold after hold and got out of many a tight position when both shoulders were dangerously near the mat.

Kennedy played every trick he has mastered in the game and on several times had O'Connell struggling desperately. But the champion was able to extricate himself from every position of danger. The Hermiston lad showed himself possessed of superior strength and all O'Connell's efforts to hold him were futile.

During the second hour of the bout, Kennedy's foot struck one of the electric bulbs among the footlights. The bulb exploded with a loud report, scattering pieces of broken glass all over the mat. Time was called and while the glass was being swept off, both wrestlers had a chance to get a rest. The last five minutes brought out some strenuous work on the part of both men, but while O'Connell excelled in his science of the art and tried every trick he could, the wary Hermiston boy eluded every dangerous hold up to the time limit. J. L. Thompson of Hermiston refereed the match.

English Rugby Team is Coming.

In all probability a combined Rugby team from the universities of Oxford and Cambridge will pay a visit to California next year. William W. Hill, the referee of the big game this year and secretary of the New South Wales Rugby union, now in England, will strive to arrange a tour for the combined English universities to Australia.

The Spirit of Love.

Here's another—the kind grandmother used to make "back East"—only better. Make them for breakfast to-morrow:

—RECIPE NO. 2—BUCKWHEAT CAKES—

- 1 1-4 cups buckwheat flour
- 1-4 cup white flour
- 1-2 teaspoon salt
- 2 1-2 cups thick sour milk
- 1 1-2 teaspoons soda
- 1 egg

Sift buckwheat flour, white flour and salt into mixing bowl; add sour milk in which soda has been dissolved, and beat very smooth; then add the well beaten egg. Bake on hot griddle and serve as rapidly as baked, that they may be enjoyed while crisp.
