HELEN GARDNER IN "CLEOPATRA"

Arche Theatre Tonight and Tomorrow.

"Miss Gardner's impersonation of Cleopatra is full of varied moods, as the character of Cleopatra must have been: at one time the incarnation of tigerish ferocity, at another imbued with the seductive languor and delightful enervation of tropic temperament."

"The scenic effects are beautiful, the costumes are gorgeous and the acting as a whole is excellent, all beinding together into what is probably the most stupendous and beautiful picture ever produced."

This picture was given a private exhibition this morning and Manager Burkhardt announces that it is one of the greatest pictures ever attempted in motion photography. Owing to the length of the production and the enormous cost in securing it the price of admission will be twenty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children. The doors will open at seven o'clock and the first performance starts at seven-fifteen.
