PINE GROVE ITEMS.

Pine Grove, Feb. 15. (Special)—The teachers and pupils enjoyed a week's vacation. School was closed by the directors because of a case of scarlet fever in the district.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wyatt are enjoying a visit from their brother, C. Atkins, of Iowa.

J. Gawith and family and Mr. and Mrs. C. Hartley and little son were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Temple Sunday.

We are glad to learn that little Marvin Chandler has nearly recovered from his attack of scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gawith are nicely settled in their home here. They are a most desirable addition to our social group.

On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Temple entertained Chas. Wyatt and family at dinner.

E. Chestnut lost a valuable horse recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Walch drove to Elgin Monday evening to witness "The Rosary."

The weekly prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Temple Monday evening.

W. Follett and family drove to Milam on February 12th to assist in celebrating the birthday of Mrs. A. Boswell, Mrs. Follett's mother.

The "Maloo" birds are very plentiful at Pine Grove. Even the oldest settlers say they have never seen such large flock of them before. As these birds roam about at night, newcomers have expressed the fear that they might prey upon chickens, but old-timers say they are perfectly harmless.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gawith and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Gawith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Long.

Despite the fact that the people turned down the blue sky law at the last election, the house passed such a measure Saturday night. It was drawn by Mitchell of Baker and had the approval of Governor West. It is self-sustaining.

The proposal to have the state go into the life insurance business was voted down in the house. It is said such a measure would create a huddle of huge proportions.

The senate decided to spend only $200,000 at the San Francisco fair. A bill was introduced by Senator Joseph to appropriate $500,000 and he was so chagrined at the amount designated that he asked to have his name stricken from the bill as its author. The three commissioners will be appointed.
