BOISE'S DREAM NEAR REALITY

ROAD TO BUTTE IS ANXIOUSLY AWAITED.

Road Thought to be Financed in the East Will Give Assistance.

(Boise Statesman.)

Is Boise's dream of a road from Butte to Idaho's capital about to be realized? Rumor has it that the parties who secured the option on the "citizens' right-of-way" some weeks ago are to build a line, probably from Butte through Boise to the Western Pacific, the Central Pacific and the San Pedro roads. It is understood that the road is to be built by capital which is entirely independent of any other well known line and it is to be an entirely independent road.

While the fact that an option had been given was still a rumor Bishop Glorieux, one of the trustees of the right-of-way, was interviewed on the subject. He refused either to affirm or deny the rumor.

"What makes you think there is an option?" he asked.

"Oh, we got a straight tip on it," he was told.

"Well," he said, smiling, "you had better get the story from the source from which you received the tip."

When informed this was not possible he suggested trying W. H. Ridenbaugh, one of the other trustees.

Mr. Ridenbaugh absolutely denied that an option had been given. He remarked that it was about time for another hot-air railroad story to be printed by the newspapers and that the rumor that an option had been given by the trustees of the right-of-way would be as good a one as any, but that no option had been given.

While it is known that no local capital is interested in it it is also known that some, who expect to be heavily interested in the new line should it be built, are rapidly acquiring interests in and about Boise, realizing that their investment will become exceedingly valuable.

The option secured is said to run for two years but the parties interested expect to begin work within 90 days or six months at the latest, provided the legislature does not pass a bill which will prohibit any railroad building in the state. Old surveys are at hand made from Butte to Boise which were made at the time when a road between these two centers seemed highly possible, and the survey made by the Union Pacific from a point near Caldwell to Winnemucca in 1901 is also held in Boise. It is not known that either of these surveys will be used by the new company, but it is hinted that they could.

GRAY HAIR TURNS ITS NATURAL COLOR AFTER APPLYING SAGE TEA

Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens Beautifully and Takes Off Dandruff.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays skilled chemists do this better than ourselves. By asking at any drug store for the ready-to-use product—called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy"—you will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Some druggists make their own, which is usually too sticky, so insist upon getting "Wyeth's" which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says his customers insist on Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because, they say, it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Minn. writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effectual and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done. For sale by all dealers.
