FUN AND HILARITY ON BOARDS AT THE STEWARD THIS NIGHT

ONE SCENE FROM "EXCUSE ME" AT THE STEWARD TONIGHT.

"Excuse Me", says the Pullman porter to the man in No. 2, "does you want to go to sleep, head first or feet first?"

"If it's all the same to you", replied the passenger, "I'll go to sleep all over at the same time." Having settled this point the passenger decides to stay awake to see the rice trap flop over the clippers in the opposite section. Which is the beginning of the end of the first evening of the four days' run from Chicago to Reno on the Overland Limited as described by Rupert Hughes in the screamingly funny farce "Excuse Me".

W. Savage will pre-steward tonight, the cur-lock.

"Excuse Me" is as full of laughter as a farce possibly could be. It is a shout of hilarity first, last and all the way through. Its merry pace doesn't flag an instant. From the moment the first passenger enters the Pullman until the train arrives at Reno four days later there is something doing at every turn of the car wheels, and every bit of it is genuine fun and the heartiest kind of laughter. Even the most seasoned and accustomed traveler by rail would never realize the possibilities for merriment aboard a train until he saw "Excuse Me." This play is frankly farce, with no apologies for being such. Nor is any apology needed. On the contrary, gratitude is due all concerned in the exploitation of "Excuse Me" for the happy entertainment it provides. It is good to laugh. The heartier the laughter the better, so "Excuse Me" is best of all. It is a fast flyer of fun. The cast really couldn't be improved. Every one of the various and amusing characters in the play are capably acted by this company. It is a pick-

Seat Sale for "Alma" Monday.

Seats will be placed on sale for "Alma, Where do you Live?" at Van Buren's Monday morning at 9 a. m. The engagement is for Wednesday night at the Steward opera house.

This is the brilliant German-French farce with music which ran a full season at Weber's theatre, New York, and is now being seen here for the first time. The English version is by George V. Hobart and the music is the original French score of Jean Briquet. "Alma" was undoubtedly a most successful production in New York City last year. It opened in the middle of August and ran the complete season until the middle of May, and the hot weather. The prices will be:

WAR DECLARED

CATARRH Germs Must be Conquered or Health Will be Destroyed.

If you have Catarrh you must vanquish an army of persistent, destructive microbes before you can be healthy.

You might as well choose your weapons, declare war and destroy this army of Catarrh germs right now. Booth's HYOMEI, a pleasant germ destroying air breathed over the entire membrane will kill Catarrh germs.

Booth's HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) is guaranteed by Newlin Drug company to end Catarrh or money back. It surely is fine for Coughs, Colds and Croup. If you own a little HYOMEI hard rubber pocket inhaler get a separate bottle of HY-

MEI for only 50 cents. If you haven't an inhaler secure a complete outfit for only $1.00. Just breathe it--no stomach dosing.
