averages; can circle the bases in 13 1-4 seconds and make a hook slide with either foot on any base; play any place on the team and deliver the con after the game to the poor fans around the cigar stores, who don't know any more about baseball than Jack Johnson does about the white slave laws.

I want you on this New York team and if you don't get killed before the finish of the 1913 season, or you are not drafted by the 20,000 league under the sea, I'll give your manager Chief Meyers' 1905 body strap or a picture of Rube Marquard for you in trade.

Of course you understand the conditions of the trade from a Class Z league to a major. Be forewarned by checking your trunk only as far as Kansas City so if anything should happen you could meet your wardrobe on the way back to the bushes. Of course I'll expect you to at least get a cup of coffee and a stack of big league hot cakes.

The reason of all this advice is that so many of the young, fast, hard-hitting bushers do not take good care of themselves and are continually spilling bull. They think they are big league timber before they are out of the old-fashioned three cornered diaper.

Now Mr. Mensor, I shall watch you this 1913 season and appoint a scout in your league to keep tab on you and your actions. Please do not disappoint me as I figure you to replace Snodgrass in 1914. Your being a Jew you would be able to catch three balls any time instead of one.

Wishing you a great year in baseball and success, I am, yours very truly,

U. OTTO B. SCHOTT. (P. D. Q.)
Secretary to Tooke A. Chance, Mgr.

Walla Walla Fans Make Merry at Jimmie's Expense.

Automobile owners and prospective owners are not taken up so entirely with opposition to the new license law that they cannot note the splendid type of cars coming into the valley this year, and the great demand for cars. Several new types are said to be rolling La Grandeward, and all of the well known makes that have their new styles represented here are attracting interest.

The automobile season is in full swing and salesmen are giving their respective merits with loud voice and plenty of demonstration. The year indicates a banner sales record for all makes of cars.

After several weeks of enforced idleness, the motorcycle is coming back to its own. The continued snow sent the noisy machines to the woodsheds for keeps from Christmas to February and it's only during the past few days that the owners have cared to get them out. Like the automobile business the dealers in motorcycles anticipate a big bunch of sales this spring and summer.
