Old Age.

Old age as it comes in the orderly process of nature is a beautiful and majestic thing. It stands for experience, knowledge, wisdom, counsel. That is old age as it should be, but old age as it often is means poor digestion, torpid bowels, a sluggish liver and a general feeling of ill health, despondency and misery. This in almost every instance wholly unnecessary. One of Chamberlain's Tablets taken immediately after supper will improve the digestion, tone up the liver and regulate the bowels. That feeling of despondency will give way to one of hope and good cheer. For sale by all dealers.

GROOM RIDES BUCKING COW

PROMINENT AND POPULAR IMBLER MAN "INITIATED."

Bride Rides Through Parade Behind Long-eared Burro.

Imbler, Oregon, Feb. 25.—John Witte, the Imbler druggist, was married secretly at La Grande on last Friday evening with only the clerk and janitor as witnesses.

The bride, Miss Beasie Childers, of Alsea, being of a shy and retiring nature, hoped to keep the incident quiet for some time, and the groom had good reason to try and escape an initiation at the hands of his friends.

Mr. Witte has been very active in helping to celebrate the same kind of joyful events heretofore, and it can truthfully be said that he received a right royal reception when he and his clinging bride landed at Imbler Saturday noon.

This whole country side turned out to help receive and John, the timid and blushing groom, was gently mounted on a decorated cow and given a ride for many city blocks, with the accompaniment of music and dancing. The bride and the minister followed in a top buggy drawn by a burro with very long ears. Many unique and laughable placards were pasted about the town, especially on the drug store, and John "set 'em up."

LONE STAR ITEMS.

Lone Star, Oregon, Feb. 24.—(Special).—Mrs. J. E. Zwiefel and Mrs. Chas. E. Keenan was in the city Monday transacting business and visiting their brother Wm. H. Conrad.

Straw stacks in the fields are fast disappearing and if the snow does not soon follow suit, hay feeding will be the order of the day.

Stock so far have wintered well but it will be a long time yet before grass comes.

Robins have been with us for the past month, chirping gaily as if spring was close at hand.

Coasting and skating are the amusements of the young folks now-a-day while it lasts as it is the best we have had this winter.

J. D. Kimmell, our efficient and obliging mail carrier is having hard roads to travel these days, but no matter what the weather conditions are, Mr. Kimmell always shows up, bringing with him that smile that won't wear off. In the good of summer the carrier's roads may be strewn with roses but not in winter.

Little Lois, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Zwiefel, is visiting her grandparents for a few days.

The Pleasant Grove Grange Literary society had their last meeting Friday night which was largely attended as usual. Their program was very lengthy and amusing and was enjoyed by all.
