

CANYON LINE GROWS APACE

MILE AND A HALF OF TRACK IS LAID

Bridge Work Under Way Now—Other Canyon Items.

Laid Canyon, Feb. 27.—(Special)—Work is progressing as rapidly as possible on the new railroad from the logging mill at Long Pine station to the sawmill up in the canyon. The crew has a mile and a half of steel laid and are finishing up the bridge work at the present time.

We have been having very pleasant weather here for several days. From all indications it appears as though spring is very near at hand as the killdeers and old crows are here sending for their chants once again. Robins and blackbirds have been here all winter.

Friends of Miss Ada Jorris, whose parents reside here, are glad to know that she is recovering from an operation of a very severe case of appendicitis at the hospital in La Grande. Miss Jorris was teaching in the public school at that place when she became ill.

Mrs. Dick Peehler spent three days at Pendleton last week with her little daughter, Helen, who has been through a month's treatment for spinal myelitis. She found her walking on crutches and even walking alone by the aid of rubber bangles on her knees and a small piece of iron on her shoes, when the doctor permits her to do so.

The younger folks of the neighborhood were delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Conaway, last Saturday afternoon, it being the birthday anniversary of their eldest son.

Mr. and Mrs. John French, of La Grande, visited last Sunday and Monday with Mrs. Francis's sister, Mrs. James Mulholland.

Lee Elison and Mrs. Charles Gray have fully recovered from the smallpox and are out once again.

LOST FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS

Metta Chamberlain, leading lady with the Wheeler "Players," here next week for six nights.

Frederick Fresno bet on a sure thing and lost. Although Allie Speed had never run a foot race, he was first at the tape, winning the 100 yard dash from Whit Long who won the Sheffield handicap from a large field in the record time of 9 and 3-5 seconds. Fresno, seeing a chance for some easy money, backed Long for $500 and is now a sadder but wiser man.

Allan Speed, a Yale man and class yell leader, boasted to his fiancée, Miss Helen Love, that he is a great runner and during his vacation at the cattle ranch of a former collegian he is induced to run a 100 yard race against Long who is working as a cook on the adjoining ranch under the name of Conner.

Little Willie, Curry, Carlin and the other cowboys of the Flying Heart ranch, where Speed is a guest, had lost most all they possessed including their photograph, which is more to them than their lives, on a previous race with Conner and the man Joe, so they force Speed to train under the instruction of Jimmy Ashford, a valet to Speed. Jimmy sees the impossibility of making a runner of Speed, but with several
