Never have things looked so bright for a Y. M. C. A. building campaign as they did Tuesday night at the banquet given by the Triangle club to the local Y. M. C. A. board in honor of Mr. I. B. Rhodes, state secretary. From start to finish the affair ran smoothly and according to schedule. Every talk was filled with a note of optimism. The announcement made by Geo. H. Curvey for a special meeting of the Y. M. C. A. board for Thursday night indicated some definite action very soon. The many friends of the association will watch with interest the developments of the next four weeks.
