ALL YEAR FAIR GROWS

PROCESSES ONLY TO BE SHOWN THERE.

San Diego Physician Writes Interestingly of Big Show.

Dr. Will D. Rudd, a brother of J. H. Rudd, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in this city, writes an interesting article on the 1915 exposition at San Diego where he is a practicing physician. He says of the big fair:

One of the most unique expositions ever designed is being built now at San Diego, Cal., to celebrate the completion of the Panama canal. It will be the first great exposition to open on New Year's day and continue for a whole year. The San Diego celebration will be opened January 1, and close December 31, 1915. Few localities in the world have a climate that would permit such an enterprise. At San Diego all the western states of the Union, and many of the eastern section, also nearly all the countries of Central and South America, will have displays. These expect to reap great benefits from the development of commerce through the canal, and they are seeking to obtain wider trade relations by exhibits at San Diego.

Unlike any other exposition ever proposed, that at San Diego is to be one showing processes exclusively. The usual idea has been to display

If you drink because of a craving for stimulants—if you've reached the stage where nothing will satisfy excepting rough, high-proof, strong whiskey—our story is not for you. But if it's mellowness, age and flavor you're looking for—you'll like Cyrus Noble.

Because it's pure—because it's palatable—because you don't have to dilute it with water to be able to swallow it. It costs no more than any other good whiskey.

the products of man's agriculture or manufacture. This idea has been abandoned at San Diego. There every display will show how man is doing things.

The grounds for the exposition enclose 615 acres, in a fine park of 1400 in the center of San Diego. Every building is to be of "mission" style, one of the prettiest types known. All will be of white plaster concrete. Another different idea is found in the arrangement of exhibits. At San Diego each state or nation will have all its display in one place, in a separate building with a tract of ground adjoining for outdoor displays. Usually a state's exhibit is scattered according to classifications through a number of buildings, nobody gaining any real idea of what the state has to offer.

In order to insure that the exposition shall be finished in every detail by the opening date, work is being rushed with all speed.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured.
There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach, and it is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle. "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." Sold by all dealers.

Observations of the Caddis.

The caddis's chastening influence on the conceit of players has numberless anecdotal examples. One of the best of these is the following:

"What sort of game does Mr. Jones play?"

"He canna play none."
"I'm going out with him tomorrow. I suppose I shall beat him."
"Na, ye will not."—Windsor Magazine.

Wisdom.

"Do you notice that your son has really learned anything in college?"
"Yes. He has learned that my ideas are those of an old fogey and that he would be false to his trust if he did not do his best to bring me to a realization of my pitiable condition."—Chicago Record Herald.

A Subtle Jab.

"This piece of lace on my dress is over fifty years old."
"It's beautiful! Did you make it yourself?"—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

He Remembered.

She—You brute! When I consented to marry you I can't think where my head was. He—On my shoulder, dear London Opinion.

WEEK BY WEEK.

Each Week Appear the Statements of La Grande Residents.

Last week it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. The week before, it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. The week before, and for many weeks before it was a La Grande citizen who spoke. And again this week it is a La Grande woman. You are not asked to act upon the word of a stranger. The best guidance that is humanly possible to give you—the encouraging word of neighbors, is always given. Mrs. Thomas Budge, 1912 Third St., La Grande, Ore., says: "One of our family complained a great deal of backache, caused by the constant jarring he got at his work. Sometimes he had to lay off for several days. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped him greatly. We think there is nothing like them, and wouldn't be without a supply in the house. I advise all kidney sufferers to try Doan's Kidney Pills. You may continue to publish the testimonial I gave after they were first used in our family." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
