WHEELERS MAKE ANOTHER HIT

C. N. HUTCHINSON, POPULAR WHEELER PLAYER.

Last night the popular Wheeler company presented an entirely different class of drama than they have heretofore produced and it proved to be a rare dramatic treat, artistically staged and admirably handled. The play itself is a dramatic gem with laughter and tears delightfully intermingled.

Every member of the company was good.

Miss Wheeler in the role of Nellie Durkin, was simply great and Mr. Wheeler, as Jim, the big hearted brother of the doctor, played a beautiful and difficult role with ease and grace.

Miss Lawrence in the Irish role of Kate Carrigan again demonstrated her ability as a finished actress. All the company were cast to advantage and special mention should be given to Mr. Hutchinson as the Priest and Mr. Lee as Michael.

La Grande's public should compliment Mr. Steward on having secured so fine an organization as the Wheeler Players. Such companies are always welcome and their popularity is shown by the large houses which greet them nightly.

LANGRELL.

To the Editor and Patrons of Pine Valley Herald:

Along with the right of franchise granted the gentler sex at our election the right of signing petitions for liquor licenses is of course included.

Thus, along with the name of Mr. Blank we find Mrs. Blank and the Misses Blank appended to these petitions as they come before the county courts for action.

It is a sad comment on the condition of society when the mothers and daughters join the fathers and brothers in petitioning for this blighting business, that brings sorrow and shame to all who come under its influence. Every individual that signs or sanctions a liquor license is equally guilty before God with the manufacturer and seller of intoxicating drinks. The wrecked homes and the blear-eyed caricatures of men that line the by-ways of life are the works of their hands.

It is to be hoped that the result of woman suffrage will tend to purify the electorate which is sadly in need of purification.

The fact that women are willing to use the first opportunity they have in exercising the suffrage, to sign liquor licenses gives but little promise of a resultant betterment of the political conditions.

Much is claimed for woman suffrage as a corrector of the existing evils of society, but such examples as this does emphasize some facts, however; among them is, that lasting reforms must come through the individual voter, be he man or woman.

Suffrage may be here to stay, but nevertheless, woman's greatest sphere of usefulness will always be as queen of the home. Here her gentle influence is exercised toward training her sons and daughters in the higher duties of home, morals and citizenship. Any departure from this ideal speaks ill for the future.

PARCELS POST C.O.D. SHORTLY

TOTAL COLLECTION MUST NOT EXCEED $1.00.

Parcels Will Be Insured up to Fifty Dollars, in Addition.

After July 1, parcels may be sent C. O. D. by parcels post, according to recent action of the postmaster general, notification of which has just been received by Postmaster Richie.

According to the new ruling, the sender of a mailable parcel on which postage is fully prepaid, may have the price of the article and the charges thereon collected from the addressee on payment of a fee of 10 cents in parcels post stamps affixed, provided the amount to be collected does not exceed $100. Such a parcel will be insured against loss without additional charge, in an amount equivalent to its actual value, but not to exceed $50.00.

The ruling also provides that addressees will not be permitted to examine the contents of a C. O. D. parcel until it has been receipted for and all charges paid. A parcel may be refused when it is tendered for delivery, but after delivery has been effected it cannot be returned on account of dissatisfaction with the contents or the amount collected.

The government will not stand responsible or misunderstandings between senders and addressees of C. O. D. packages.
