La Grande Society

Mrs. Frank Bay entertained the New New Idea club this week at her home on Adams complimentary to Lulu Morgan Waugh, former Spokane star, who appeared here in vaudville. In addition to the regular guests Mrs. D. C. Crawford, Mrs. C. W. Noyes and Mrs. Roscoe Neill were special guests for the occasion. The Bay home was prettily decorated in Irish decorative schemes.

While principally a fraternal event, the pilgrimage to Pendleton last Sunday by a large number of Knights of Columbus, was also a social function. Local men partook in the program following initiation of a class of 50 and in many ways the visitors were handsomely entertained by the Pendleton people. The party had a hard trip nevertheless. To make matters worse, 99 per cent of the crowd was bent on keeping the private car in an uproar, on the return trip, and though tired out from a strenuous day in Pendleton on Sunday there was little or no sleep on the return. Staid business men were hauled out of their "bunks" before the Pullman had left Pendleton and from then on to La Grande there was no sleep or rest. The fun and frolic caused many a drooping eye the following day but on the whole it was one of the biggest treats the lodgemen have participated in for some time.

The second section of the Domestic Science class very pleasantly entertained the members of the high school faculty at a St. Patrick's dinner in the L. H. S. dining room Friday evening. The room was tastefully decorated according to St. Patrick's day.

The members of the class serving were Marie Bolton, Bessie Brown, Helen McDonald, Lila Hamilton, Edna Ferryman and Hazel Young.

A six course dinner was served consisting of:

Irish Stew	Bread Jicks
Corn Beef Casserole	Tomato Sauce
Riced Potatoes	Turnip Balls
Hot Rolls
Buttermilk	Nut Bread
Pigs in Blanket	Wafers
Strawberry whip	Potato Cake
Cocoe	Mints

A very interesting program has been arranged under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus for the Monday evening celebration in honor of St. Patrick. Over 200 tickets have already been sold, and the L. D. S. tabernacle where the program will be rendered, will likely be well-filled. The program has been announced as follows:

Instrumental Solo—Gertrude Ferguson.
Vocal Solo, "Killarney"—Miss Henrietta Foley.

Vocal Solo—J. A. Hadaller.
Voca Solo—"Killarney and You"—Mrs. J. F. Corbett.
Recitation—Louis Cherrier.

Vocal Solo—"Innisfallen"—C. P. Ferrin.
Address—Rev. J. F. Murphy.

From Palm Sunday until Easter day, La Grande portends extreme social hibernation. Many who see no harm in social activities during the major portion of Lent, do object to social frivolities during Holy Week, and it is a safe presumption to say that there will be very little things de society the coming week. The dying week has been only moderately active, the gradual decline leading up to the Holy Week abstinence from society.

Mrs. H. C. Cotner, and son, "Bobbie," were entertained at the home of the former "February 29" to celebrate their birthday. The affair was in charge of Mrs. Clara Prentice, of Ponderay, who has been on an extended visit to her parents. Much amusement was occasioned in trying to guess the probable age of the pair, it being a date a little out of the ordinary. A most appetizing collation was served after which the evening was spent in music and mirth-provoking stunts by everybody. At a late hour good-nights were said, and regrets that so long a time must elapse before a similar date would occur, and a repetition of like festivities enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Cotner, Hon. S. S. Richardson and daughter, Helen; Mrs. Clara Prentice and son, Oren; Mr. and Ben A. Cotner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cotner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stevens and Miss Eva Cotner.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pattison gave a dinner last Sunday at their home 1705 Adams avenue in honor of F. J. Pattison who leaves in about a week for Southern California. The invited guests were Mr. and Mrs. Grant A. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Jesse, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Safford, Messrs. George Gray, Louis Lawrence, Chas. Tomassene, Dan Hines, Bonnie Jesse and Miss Virginia Lincoln. The afternoon was most pleasantly spent in music and songs, and all left wishing Mr. Pattison success in his new field.

The Women of Woodcraft are having very good times at their meetings this winter. Tuesday evening March 11 was their regular meeting night. A jolly crowd was present and after lodge a delicious lunch was served. The table was beautifully decorated in honor of St. Patrick's day. The next meeting will be on Tuesday evening March 25. All members of Women of Woodcraft will find a warm welcome and a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Lot L. Snodgrass, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Van Buren, entertained the Pinocle club Tuesday evening. Card honors were won by H. M. Bay.

This program is to be held in the Methodist church and a small admission fee will be charged.

Monday night will be a stellar one for Moose members and their lady friends. The monthly social event for that lodge calls for dancing and cards at the lodge rooms and all members are cordially invited to be present on that occasion.

Mrs. Roger Deal was hostess to the South La Grande Methodist church Ladies' Aid society in South La Grande this week. About 17 were present.

Mrs. C. M. Lockwood and Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, at the home of the latter Wednesday evening entertained the Sans Souci club. Honors were won by Mrs. W. B. Sargent and C. S. Dunn and the consolation went to C. H. Seranton.

The W. C. T. U. was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. M. McMurray.

PERRY GIVEN COMMISSION.
Local Poultryman to Be Superintendent at Fair This Year

Governor West has commissioned C. L. Perry a pioneer poultryman of this valley, as superintendent of the state fair poultry department. This fitting tribute to a La Grande man's ability was received yesterday by Mr. Perry and he will go about it to carry out the duties. It will require considerable work on his part prior to the opening of the state fair.

Mr. Perry was one of the first to make an extensive business of poultry raising in and about this city. At the time, a few years ago, little or no attention was given to the poultry business. C. C. Coolidge, Mr. Hanson, Mr. Stoddard, Mr. Perry and others, however, soon came to make an extensive business enterprise of poultry and since then the industry has thrived.

Farewell Performance Tonight.

Tonight the Wheeler Players will give their farewell performance in La Grande, presenting "The Spy," a bill never before seen in the west. Manager Wheeler believes in giving his patrons as good a bill on the last night as he does on his opening night and with that end in view he has selected one of the latest plays.

"The Spy" is a semi-military play of the period of 1864 with a plot that is different from the general run of military plays. The climaxes are all surprising and the comedy vein is delightful. A cleverly concocted story has been dramatized to make this beautiful bill.

The members of the company have been cast to the best advantage and a fine performance is guaranteed.

A packed house is guaranteed this popular company tonight and the theatre patrons of La Grande will witness one of the Wheeler Players' best bills on the last night in this city.
