for a trifle. "About one year ago," says P. H. Beck, of Wakelee, Mich.,
"I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously

NEWS FOR THE RURAL SECTIONS Observer's Big Asset

AFTER diligent search and at the sacrifice of considerable expense money The Observer has establish paid correspondents in a majority of all the big towns, and a vast number of postoffice and rural districts throughout Union and Wallowa counties. Within the course of a month this chain of paid correspondents will be complete and long and The Observer can then boast of the biggest news-gathering force of any out-of-Portland paper in the state. Scarcely a hamlet in the two counties but what will have its day-to-day news recorded weekly in The Observer. With a network of telephone wires, and rural route mail service, the combination works "going and coming" — The Observer gets the news from the rural districts by both letter and telephone, and The Observer, in turn, promptly reaches the readers with not only the country correspondence in full, but its varied other news "to boot"

Daily The Observer brings to the reader the latest news and gossip from the market world—wheat, hogs, vegetables, cattle, in fact, every commodity of trade is reviewed for the instruction and benefit of the reader who may have no other way of learning these important facts.

No matter how remote the reader is from well-beaten thoroughfares of commerce or from the larger cities, The Observer, through its expensive telegraph news system keeps that reader in close touch with the world's affairs. No corner so distant but what The Observer telegraph news system reaches there and quickly, surely and concisely puts it before the Observer readers today.
