PERILS AMONG FALSE BRETHREN

St. Paul's Experiences Duplicate the Master's.

Jesus' Footstep Followers Wounded in the House of Their Friends—The Philosophy of the Matter—How to Receive Such Experiences—Why They Are Permitted—The Results They Serve—Special Perils Today.

Ottawa, Ont., March 30.—Pastor Russell, who since his last visit has many friends here, arrived again this morning. As usual, the largest auditorium was engaged for him. We report one of his addresses, from St. Paul's words "Perils among false brethren." 2 Corinthians 11:26. He said:

St. Paul was fully devoted to the Master and His cause. His faithfulness brought many trying experiences. He served Christ to such an extent that many counted him a fool. Those who opposed his teachings often raised a tumult and blamed him for it. In order to bring him into disrepute.

Nevertheless, he rejoiced in all such experiences. None of these things moved him from faithfulness to his Master, whose servants he had persecuted before his eyes were opened. He recounts various perils from robbers from Jews, from heathen, in the city, in the wilderness, on the sea. He winds up the list with the words of our text, "perils among false brethren."

The question arises, "Were these sufferings deserved?" Surely not! St. Paul was a noble character and bore the Message of God's grace in Christ. Then comes the question, "If his sufferings were not punishments, what were they?" We reply that, like the Master's, they were evidences of loyalty to God and of the darkness of the world, which led men to persecute him.

Darkness Hates the Light. The Master declared that He stood for the principles of light, righteousness, truth; while Satan stands for darkness, blindness, superstition. All children of the light must be uncompromising in attitude toward wrong. Therefore the world hates them and says all manner of evil against them falsely. Yea, men will feel that they serve God when they slay the righteous, whether literally, as with Jesus and St. Paul, or by "shooting out arrows, even bitter words," the more popular present-day method.

But some will say, "Times have changed! Today our ministers are revered. No one thinks of persecuting them. All men speak well of them. Those not spoken well of today must in some way be unworthy."

How strange that we should forget! In Jesus' day did any traduce the chief priests and Pharisees? Were they not spoken of highly and reverenced? But the Master and His disciples were not popular. According to their own record they were "the fifth and offspring of the earth." The Master said that whoever persecuted them would feel that he did God service. As Jesus told some in His day, "Ye garnish the sepulchres of those whom your fathers slew, yet ye do their works." So today many extol the Lord and the Apostles and denounce their persecutors, while similarly they persecute.

The Master was a Jew. The Jews were His brethren according to the flesh. Yet they hated Him without a cause, persecuted Him and finally crucified Him. But St. Paul lived after Pentecost, and had Christian brethren, begotten of the Holy Spirit, fellow-members of the Body of Christ. Jesus had none such. "Of the people there were none with Him."

St. Paul knew the bitterness of persecution from false brethren—the climax of all his perils. We may be sure that such experiences were most difficult to bear, for they came from brethren of the closest possible relationship—fellow-members of the Body of Christ.

The Godly Suffer Persecution. All faithful followers of Jesus have persecutions. These come from every quarter; but none are more cruel than those from Christian brethren. Disputes between Christians have been very bitter. History demonstrates this fact. Heretic became the most obnoxious word in the dictionary. Nothing was too bad to do against a heretic.

Thank God for the advancement made in Christian sympathy! No longer can civilized people take pleasure in tortures, burnings, etc. The general sentiment no longer appreciates or tolerates physical torture. But who can dispute that mental torture is equally severe? In our day there are more refined ways of persecuting, torturing, etc., open to false brethren.

Evil-speaking, evil-surmising, slanders, ambiguous suggestions, etc., can be applied to the followers of Jesus today. All who take such a course are sharers with malefactors, even though

SHOOTERS IN DUAL TIE UP

TROUTDALE AND LA GRANDE GET 113 EACH.

Perfect Score Made at Troutdale Yesterday With Even Shooting Here

La Grande and Troutdale tied yesterday in the second shoot of the Oregon state blue rock league. Both registered 113, and will have to be shot off at some future date.

The score at Troutdale shows a perfect one. Whitton, of Troutdale, equalled Lewis' record of the week before, going a perfect string.

The score at Troutdale was:

Whitton	25
Edmundson	24
Dr. Ott	24
Knarr	20
Hallinan	20
Total	113

La Grande fell down one point yesterday, compared to the first day. But one self-evident result of the drizzling rain in which the squads shot, was the toughness of the birds. There are now on display at Rayburn's rifle range in this city, one bird with four holes in it and four other shot marks, another bird with a large hole blown through it, still these are not counted as dead birds. The dampness worked a hardship for ordinarily one clean shot will break a bird.

Among those who are displaying keen eyes is Price, who killed 26 out of 20 straight birds but not in a way and time that could be counted in the official shot. However, he knocked down 20 of the 25 in that string. Even, consistent shooting such as La Grande is enacting now means high standings in the end for with five men shooting above 22 and three or four hugging that mark, there is no danger of a material slump. Lewis, who killed 25 straight last Sunday, missed the 17th shot of his second string yesterday, and Rayburn came away with high man honors. However, Jack Hillary surprised the shooters by going back after the official test of skill and killing a perfect string of 25—the string couldn't count, much to the regret of all as it was his third one, and not the second, which is the official.

Keen interest is being taken in the shoots and it is noted that several new men are coming to the front threatening to displace some of the regulars. The scores made in the official shoot, not counting a half dozen who shot through the practice string, follows:

	Shot	Killed
Hillary	25	17
Price	25	20
Jolly	25	19
Lemons	25	15
Densler	25	15
Kiddle	25	17
Totals	150	113

they do not indulge in physical torture.

What shall we say of the false brethren who do such things? Undoubtedly the Master still agrees with St. John's declaration, "Whosoever bareth his brother is a murderer and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life" (1 John 3:15). Surely none with a murderous condition of heart could be suitable for joint-heirship with our Lord in His Kingdom!

Robert Browning.

Of Robert Browning toward the close of his life Frederic Harrison in his memoirs has this to say: "He was all things to all men and all women, always at his best, always bringing light, happiness, generosity and sense into every society he entered. I think him the happiest social spirit whom I have ever been my fortune to meet."

His Retirement.

Pimples Source of Great Danger

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Bid Farewell to All Blood and Skin Diseases.

The research laboratory of The Swift Specific Co. has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone among specific remedies as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. There are more cases of articular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paralysis, neuritis and similar diseases resulting from the use of minerals than from disease germs direct. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 127 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice to all who are struggling with a blood disease. Get a $1.00 bottle of S. S. S. today of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood.
