ACTIVE CAMP IS INSTITUTED

KING GETS HIS NUCLEUS BALL-TEAM OUT TODAY.

Hike to Hot Lake Yesterday Is First Curia for Hard Work Act.

CLEAVER'S CARLOAD OF AP- PLES COMING
Much delighted that his suggestion of the name "Spuds" for the La Grande team had been accepted, George L. Cleaver, potato and apple king of Imbler, was in La Grande this morning and assured President Foley that the carload of potatoes which went with the suggestion, would be sent down to La Grande at once. Mr. Foley intends to conduct an auction sale, the benefits to go to the ball team.

Baseball stock boomed today when the La Grande club—or more fittingly speaking, the nucleus of it, got out in uniform for the first workout. From now on it will be twice a day each day for the squad, and in all probabilities the training will be done here. The sudden advent of weather that permits training of a light nature, allowed the management to stay home rather than seek warmer climes in the north.

The introductory stunt in the training line, however, occurred yesterday when Manager King walked himself and six others of his squad to Hot Lake. The nine-mile hike didn't particularly stiffen the unused muscles, either, for the hikers were out this morning in uniform. King is chief factotum in baseball but he was bested in the walking business by "blondy" Vahrenhorst who beat the crowd to the Lake yesterday by several minutes though the others made it in two hours—they say. King, Mountain, Luttrell, Lind, Tyson, Mannerling and Vahrenhorst made the journey.

"Naughty" Naughton popular short-stop of last year, is in camp. He dropped in last night and with him came a man named Conroy, an outfielder from Butte. Naughton has been meeting his friends about town today and will be out in uniform tomorrow.

King has signed Goddard, the south-paw and Bargetts, the Tamoca right hander.

Baker Begins Its Practice.

The Baker Herald says the Baker ball team had their first practice on Monday afternoon, when seven of the men were out taking the kinks out of their backs. Among those on the diamond were Myrtle Dowling, an infielder from Erie, Pa., Ribert Cress, a catcher from Anaconda, Ben Young, a pitcher of Danville, Ills, Lewis West outfielder from Blackfoot Ida., and Clayton Coleman, the local pitcher, who was the star twirler of Hoover's Cubs last season. Manager "Con" Harlow was also there in uniform directing their playing. Several more players will report within the next two or three days, as the entire bunch of signed men are on their way or have already arrived.

McKune in Pendleton.

Pendleton, April 1.—(Special)—Player-manager Terry McKune of the Pendleton 1913 Buckaroos arrived in Pendleton last evening and had in tow the nucleus of the Pendleton team. Accompanying him were Pitchers Joe Berger, Ashenfelder and Fischer, and Catchers Bladen and Haworth.

Sampter Man Killed.

Sampter, March 31.—(Special)—R. P. McMahon was killed last night at the Ben Harrison mine by a quantity of ore falling on him. Little detail is known as communication with the mine is almost impossible.

He had been in the mine's employ only about four weeks and was intending to leave there soon for his home in Baker.

Ross P. McMahon is well known in Baker, as he and his family lived there for a considerable time. The body will be brought down tomorrow night and shipped to Pendleton.

Logging Road Building.

Ladd Canyon, April 1.—(Special)—The new sawmill railroad is rapidly progressing under the management of J. A. Matott. Mr. Matott filled the vacancy left by Walter Schlewack. He has moved his family into the house at Lone Pine station and they are indeed welcome to this neighborhood. Their son "Cagle", who is employed in La Grande as messenger boy at the Western Union telegraph office, spent Sunday out here with them.

Ladd Canyon Persons.

Ladd Canyon, April 1.—(Special)—Lee Elston visited over Saturday night in La Grande.

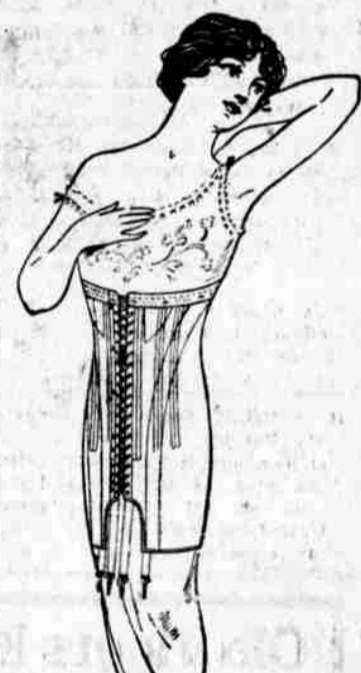

Miss Irene Mulholland spent the day yesterday at Island City with her sister, Mrs. Alec Furgason, who resides at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Crossen, of La Grande, visited over night one day last week with Mrs. Crossen's parents Mr. and Mrs. John McCauley, senior.

Mrs. Crossen recently underwent an operation at the hospital in La Grande, and this is her first visit out here since then. They contemplate going on a journey in a few days, in the interests of her health. They were Ladd Canyon residents a few years ago.

Yeoman Conference on.

Councilman J. K. Fitzgerald, foreman of the local Yeoman lodge, has gone to Salem where he will attend the state conclave of yeomen. The state organization will elect three delegates to the national conclave at Oklaoma City.

NAT C. COOPER FOUND DEAD.

Frominent Baker Man Passes Away Suddenly During the Night.

Baker, April 1.—The Herald said last night:

Nat C. Cooper, former resident of Baker, was found dead in bed this morning at a Salem hotel. He was on a business trip to the capital city and had retired in apparently good health, but those who entered his room this morning found him lifeless.

Mr. Cooper was 55 years old and had been a resident of Baker for over 18 years, where he was employed for some time with the Basche-Sage Hardware company as head bookkeeper.

Later he went into business with Oscar Brandenburg in cigars and confections, which store is now owned by Perkins brothers.

Mr. Cooper had been in Portland for the past four years where he has been engaged in the piano business. He was a prominent member of the B. P. O. Elks of this city and had served as councilman for a number of terms. Mrs. Cooper was in Los Angeles visiting when the sad news reached her. His son Virgil is superintendent of the Douglas county Light and Water company at Roseburg. It has only been three weeks ago that Mr. Cooper was in Baker visiting his sister, Mrs. P. Basche. No funeral arrangements have yet been made.

CHECKER FANS TO SEE MATCH

ALICEL TEAM OF THREE TO CONTEST LOCAL FANS.

Interesting Matches Anticipated When Alicel Squad of Three Comes

Checker fans will be given an interesting exhibition tonight at Y. M. C. A. headquarters when a team of three Alicel players headed by H. H. Cleaver will contest three men from the La Grande Checker club. The local team will be picked from President Berger, of the club, H. T. Love, Mr. Jenkins or N. J. Mansager. The playing starts shortly after 7:30 and all who wish to witness the interesting matches are urged to be present. This is the first of a series of inter-city matches of this county, Island City being in line to meet the winner of tonight's match.

Combs Mill Now Idle.

Ladd Canyon, April 1.—(Special)—Comb's sawmill, on the foothill near the farm known as the old Shambaugh farm, is idle again. This is the new mill which has been in operation but a few months and has sawed considerable lumber since it was constructed.
