Civic League to Start Improvement

(Elgin Recorder.)

The membership of the Elgin Civic Improvement league is not sufficient to cope with the situation in Mexico but there is enough ginger and enthusiasm in the few members of that body to accomplish some good and they are determined to do so.

Wednesday afternoon is the date of the regular meeting of that organization and in order to stimulate enthusiasm and increase the number of members the association has decided to serve sandwiches, cake and coffee to all comers—the more comers the better.

Men, just because the women have a right to vote, don't think you are barred. You are wanted there.

Women who are not members are especially urged to be present and assist in making Elgin the best town from a civic standpoint. In Eastern Oregon, right here the ladies of Elgin will find ample room to give vent to a lot of stored up energy and accomplish much toward the beautifying and betterment of the town.

The affair is to be held in the magnificent new city hall and if you are interested in the future growth and development of the town you will be there.

Prof. Churchill Decides to Accept.

(Baker Democrat.)

Prof. J. A. Churchill will accept the appointment as state superintendent of schools to succeed L. R. Alderman, despite the fact that the school board of Baker yesterday offered him the same salary he would receive as state superintendent, to remain in charge of the local schools. The offer was made by the board yesterday forenoon, and in declining to accept it Prof. Churchill did so with regret.

According to his statement, he feels that the office of state superintendent offers him a broader field which is undoubtedly true, as well as the fact that the position is in a measure a stepping stone to still larger and better things. However, the school board in making the effort to keep him but voiced the sentiment of the entire community and the people will feel that his departure will not be through any fault or lack of effort on their part to keep him.

His decision certainly must have cost him many hours of hard thought and study and his conclusion without doubt is the right one. For his own advancement, certainly it is the right thing to do, and the effort to keep him in Baker was in a large measure inspired by selfishness. But while his leaving will be regretted, his advancement will be the source of greatest satisfaction to all, and now that the bridges are burned, there are none but whom will wish him God-speed and all success.

He will probably assume his new position shortly after the close of the present school year.

OUR FRUIT CROP.

Cove, Ore., April 2.—To the Editor: The fruit crop of 1912 is drawing to a close, and it is needless to say it has proved the most disastrous to the producer in the history of commercial fruit growing, and there must be some strenuous efforts put forth by the grower, or fruit growing in the future will only be a repetition of the conditions we have just passed through.

What is needed is a strong organization among all fruit growers, with a determination to find a market for all fruit products that is not fit to put on the markets, as fresh fruits.

Each fruit growing district should have canning factories, cider mills, vinegar plants, and fruit driers to take care of the inferior grades or fruits and berries.

Nothing but the very best should be put on the fresh fruit markets.

Each fruit district should have competent salesmen to find markets for all of its outputs, fresh, canned and dried, and I would be in favor of each salesman drawing a salary sufficient so he would not be tempted or inclined to graft.

We should do all in our power to get better freight rates so there would be more chance to compete with all eastern markets.

Money For County Fair Available.

(Pendleton E. O.)

Though all district fairs within the state have been abolished by legislation enacted by the recent legislature there will be money available for this year for a strictly Umatilla county fair if one should be held. This is the substance of a wire message received by the East Oregonian from Secretary of State Olcott and it alters the status of affairs as set forth in a recent letter from the secretary's office to Lee Moorhouse, secretary of the third district fair.

This morning the East Oregonian queried Secretary Olcott asking if state money would be available this year for the third district fair. Following is his reply:

Salem, Ore., March 31, 1913.

East Oregonian,

Pendleton, Oregon.

No. House bills four twenty eight and six thirty three create county fairs which supersede all district fairs. There will be due from state June fifteen next Umatilla county apportionment thereunder, two thousand one hundred and seventy eight dollars.

BEN W. OLCOTT,

Secretary of State.

Major Moorhouse has received the following letter from Attorney General Crawford in response to an inquiry made of that official as to the status of the fair money.

Salem, Ore., March 28, 1913.

Hon. Lee Moorhouse,

Pendleton, Ore.

Dear Sir:—I have your favor of 25th instant in the matter of the state appropriation for the third Eastern Oregon district agricultural society. In connection with the county fair bill and answering beg to say that the bill passed by the legislature repeals all of the acts for holding district fairs, and therefore as soon as it takes effect on the 3rd of June there will be no more district fairs. It however appropriates money for county fairs, which will be available this year. You have no doubt seen in the newspapers, the amounts appropriated to is a favorite with the mothers of the respective counties, and if I remember correctly, Umatilla county gets something over $2100, which is in excess of the amount received for the third district heretofore, and therefore Umatilla county especially will not suffer by the change.

Very respectfully yours,

A. M. CRAWFORD,

Attorney General.

After this year under the legislation enacted, each county will have to support its own fair and no state money will be available for fair purposes.
