The Golden Rule Company

Additional Society

A fraternal event of considerable interest occurred last night when the Woodmen of the World initiated a class of five partook in a banquet at the close of the work. The meeting was attended by District Manager Manion who has jurisdiction in Oregon and Idaho, and Organizer H. White. A class of 10 is said to be ready for initiation two weeks hence. Among the attractions was the degree work, put on by 16 members of that team. The lodge has empowered its degree team to become a La Grande and Woodman of the World camp booster committee and it will proceed on its dual duty at once. A general campaign is being conducted by that order in this city.

Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard and Miss Carrie Hunter were hostesses at the Eastern Star social club Tuesday afternoon of this week. Cards were played.

Mrs. M. E. Cates was pleasantly surprised Monday evening by members of the Rebekah lodge. She leaves soon for Vancouver to make her home and the farewell was planned in her honor. After refreshments and a lovely evening had been enjoyed Mrs. Cates was presented with a pretty cut glass dish as a token of the esteem and friendship that will go with her to her new home.

Crystal Rebekah lodge of this city was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening by a visit from Grand Master Wheeler and wife of Portland.

A landslide on the branch line was responsible for the visit as the grand I. O. O. F. official could not fill his dates in Wallawa county. The membership, 60 of whom were present, heard an instructive address on the good of the order. After the lodge session the social committee consisting of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Buck and George Grout entertained the lodge with appropriate lines of amusements after which the committee seated the guests to a banquet (Bank wet) of April fool nature. With a great deal of amusement vlands were served for the entertainment of the guests. During the evening Della Wagner, Leah Coolidge and Helen McLachlin were elected delegates to the state assembly at Medford in May. It was a big evening for the Rebekahs and the members appreciated the visit of the I. O. O. F. official and the entertainment accorded them.

Mrs. P. S. Robinson was hostess to the afternoon division of the Kaffee Klatch yesterday.

Mrs. William Allinson entertained the Five Hundred club this week, and honors went to Mrs. Gene Moore.

The Omaha girls, high school lassies and gentleman friends, were entertained last evening by Miss Alice Hill. Parlor games and refreshments made up the slate of amusements. Those who participated in Miss Hill's delightful function were Misses Helen Currey, Inez Knowles, Nora Arbuckle,

MME. TETRAZZINI, WHO DREW MANY TO PORTLAND.

Close to a score of La Grande people bore the brunt of high prices and difficulty in securing seats in Portland during the week to hear the group of grand opera stars headed by Mme. Tetrazzini. No other Eastern Oregon city sent as many to grand opera week in Portland as La Grande and local guests there drew complimentary mention in the metropolis society news columns.

Sereha Rohan, Ida Billings, Nita Hunter, Florence Happersell, Ethel Wright and Olive Massee; Messrs. Russell Ralston, Fred Kiddle, Colon Steward, Lyle Kiddle, Milton Stoddard, George Currey, Harley Richardson and Glen Conkey.

More Money for Sufferers. G. M. Curtis, formerly of La Grande but now in the railroad service at Pendleton, forwarded $5.00 to The Observer Friday to be sent to the flood sufferers at Dayton.

A Sure Cure to Make La Grande Better.

Go to your grocer, and get a sack Blue Stem flour. Take for a dose all you can hold three times daily and repeat same as long as the flour lasts, then get more. It won't hurt you. Ask him how it is guaranteed. No one takes any chances losing on this game. It's all made in La Grande, Home, Sweet Home. That's our motto. Spend the money where it is earned. We are on the ground to just try one sack, and make us prove make good at all times. Now ladies, it. Ask those who live on it. Rep. La Grande Milling Co. 4-4-2t
