

ARCADE THEATER . . .

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

SALOME

Three Startling and Sensational Reels

Coming Monday and Tuesday

Coming Monday and Tuesday

Miss Mildred Reith of Spokane was the motif of two popular social events of the week.

Grace Pickens entertained at a dinner party, Tuesday evening in honor of Mildred Reith. Those present were: Charlotte Jones, Vera Joel, Mildred Reith, Naomi Kirtley, Nellie and Grace Pickens.

Charlotte Jones, Vera Joel and Naomi Kirtley entertained at a theatre party Thursday evening in honor of Mildred Reith who left for her home in Spokane Friday morning. After the theatre a delightful two course luncheon was served at the home of W. R. Jones. The table was beautifully decorated in red, a large vase of red roses formed the centerpiece. Those present were: Misses Grace Pickens, Nellie Pickens, Mildred Reith, Charlottes Jones, Vera Joel, Naomi Kirtley, Messrs. Gilbert Hunter, Myrton Westering, Lynn Bohnenkamp, Gordon Gilman, Ellis Williamson, Robt. Partison.

Not least among the coming week's social affairs will be the dance given next Wednesday evening at the Elks' hall by the clerks of the city. The members of clerk roll who are interested in the Twilight baseball league are the principal promoters of the dancing party but all clerks of the city are enthusiastically behind it and the party indicates a large attendance. The proceeds will go to the purchase of new uniforms.

At the meeting of the Neighborhood club April 1st Mrs. W. R. Kivette was elected a delegate to the National Federation of Women's Clubs convention, which is to be held in Washington, D. C., the last of April. Mrs. Kivette will leave here about April 15. The ladies showed much enthusiasm over the coming of Mrs. McCoy in "Bunty Pulls the Strings." The sale of tickets is very encouraging, and as the proceeds of this entertainment go to the work fund of the library the cause is a very popular one. The meeting on April 15th is to be the "Annual Social Day," and is to be held in the Commercial club rooms.

Wednesday, March 19, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brady visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith of the poor farm. When they returned home in the evening they found their home nicely decorated and neighbors in waiting. The evening was spent in games and cards, and partaking of a bounteous spread, it being the first anniversary of their marriage. The young couple was surprised to the satisfaction of their guests. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. Tall, Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Briggs and daughters, Harold Tall, O. Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Winburn, Mamie Benton Mrs. and Mrs. Van Leven, Mrs. Good, Mr. and Mrs. Hoke, Mrs. S. A. Brady.

Mrs. Oliver McCoy's coming to La Grande next Tuesday evening in "Bunty Pulls the Strings", brings a distinguished personage. It is a quaint bit of experience Katherine Oliver McCoy has had. Once she gave her own interpretation of "The Little Minister" before the author, James Barrie, in his home in London. And then she went into his old home town Thrum, and gave "The Little Minister" to Barrie's boyhood and girlhood friends in the town hall. She has read "The Sky Pilot" to Ralph Connor, the author, and he said: "I am glad my children are in your hands." Speaker of her hand her repertoire of readings J. M. Barrie author of "The Little Minister" humorously remarks, "There are few more invigorating sights than a Scotchman on the make."

Imbler, April 5.—(Special)—A very pretty home wedding took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride when Josephine Brooks and Ed Woodell were united in holy wedlock. Rev. Dressler officiated. Only intimate friends and relatives of the bride and bridegroom witnessed the ceremony. Both Mr. and Mrs. Woodell are very popular and they have the congratulations and best wishes of the entire community.

Barnie Mulleague of North Dakota and Miss Clara Prow of La Grande were married Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hough, 1805 Adams avenue, Rev. Adams officiated.

The Latin class social division of the high school met this afternoon instead of tonight the hostesses being Misses Stella Bodmer and Frances Hills. The club met at the home of Miss Bodmer, and the usual social entertainment was provided.

Last Monday evening a very informal dancing party was arranged at Honan hall in which a score of people were guests.

With the advance in price of from $750 to $1,000 an acre tract for Grandview property the La Grande Investment company is experiencing heavy demand for these choice acres. One purchaser, who, a few days ago, bought an acre tract, last evening closed for four more. Indications are good for a sale on this property during the spring months which will change the ownership from the investment company to a number of individuals.

That it is a slightly piece of property and in due course of time will be an ideal location for those who prefer to have homes out a little way from the business section there is no doubt whatever. Nature has so shaped the topography of that section that even the technical eye of the landscape gardener could build no better base for his works.

Several sales are pending and this week's end shows the real estate barometer of La Grande with strong indications of activity with the first good weather. Each real estate firm has the rosiest kind of a picture for the coming year, and while prices have not materially advanced over last season the demand is showing very strong.
