

SALOME Arcade Tonight

ARCADE SHOWS 3-REEL FEATURE

SCENES WELL HANDLED—PHOTOGRAPHY IS EXCELLENT.

Production of Historical Interest to Be Shown for Last Time Tonight.

"Salome," the three reel photoplay which opened at the Arcade theatre yesterday, created more varied discussion than any attraction ever presented at this theatre, and the historic accuracy of the entire production met with cordial approval. The big scenes are well handled, the photography and effects are excellent and the acting is up to the high standard maintained by the famous Italian company presenting it.

From the opening scenes to the climax, when the head of John the Baptist was brought in and "Salome" danced about it, the interest never flags. This photoplay will be shown for the last time tonight. The program closes with the ever popular Gaumont Weekly and Terry & Frank in vaudeville.

Coming next Thursday, for one day only, a full reel of the Omaha tornado pictures.

Bench Show at Frisco.

San Francisco, April 8.—More than 500 dogs of all breeds are entered here for the opening of the Golden Gate Kennel club's five-point annual show which begins today. Mrs. Pankhurst Weak.

London, April 8.—Greatly weakened by her refusal to partake of food the release of Mrs. Pankhurst from Holles House is expected hourly. A room has been prepared for her in a private hospital.

It is reported today that Miss Emerson who is due to be released tomorrow, had suffered a nervous breakdown and is in a dazed condition.

American protests concerning the forcible feeding of Miss Emerson caused Under Home Secretary Griffiths to announce in the house of commons that her condition was satisfactory.

American Held for Ransom.

Los Angeles, April 8.—George Jacobs, a prominent Los Angeles merchant, is held for ransom by Mexican bandits, according to a message received by Michael George, a business associate, from American citizens at Calexico. Jacobs was captured while traveling from Calexico to Yuma with a consignment of goods. It is understood he was taken to a bandit camp at Eisenanda. Lower California, and $2,000 ransom is demanded.

Providence, R. I., April 8.—To treat several cases as consulting physician Dr. Friedmann is en route here from New York. He will be allowed to accept fees and to treat private cases. Governor Pothier will officially welcome Friedmann this afternoon. He will remain two weeks.

NEW MEN IN SENATE.

Minnesota sends James Manahan, who won the suit that compelled the Pullman company to reduce the price of upper berths. He is out for the recall of judges. Falconer of Washington (Progressive) former speaker of a state legislature, joins Foreman of Illinois. Illinois also is represented by Lawrence B. Stringer, Democratic primary nominee for senator when Lecturer was chosen. Colorado contributes Judge Geo. J. Kindel of Denver, a veteran attorney in fight against railroads. Three picturesque characters on the floor will be William Baltz of Illinois, Peter Golet Gerry of Rhode Island and Col. Salist Kirkpatrick of Iowa. Baltz is a farmer, miller and village banker, whose three daughters have come here from hard work in the fields and dairy of a German-American homestead. They have never before ventured fifty miles from home. Gerry is a blue-blooded aristocrat and "high-society millionaire" Col. Kirkpatrick is a survivor of the Civil war and of two-two years of outlaw-chasing. He says he carries 200 bullets in his body. Moonshiners gave him 27 in one encounter. He has arrested hundreds of gun fighters and killed a few.

Then there is "Eight Hour" Nolan, recently secretary of the San Francisco Labor Council. Wage earning women in California thank him for the eight hour law in that state, while Los Angeles remembers him as organizer of the metal trades workers whose strike culminated in the McNamara tragedy. Attacking him will be Albert S. Johnson of Hoquiam, Wash., who runs an anti-labor and anti-socialist journal.

Massachusetts sends three new business men and a landlord to the lower house. Winslow makes skates. Gilmore gets groceries and Thatcher sells wool, while Treadway runs a summer hotel. New Hampshire, for the first time in half a century, is represented by Democrats, one of whom is National Committeeman Reed, New Jersey honors J. Thompson Baker, who put Wildwood on the map as a seaside resort. New York let in Walter M. Chandler, an ardent follower of Roosevelt.

Judge W. A. Watson of Virginia, who presided over the Beatty trial, is in the delegation from the Old Dominion. Patrick Kelley, former lieutenant-governor of Michigan, and James A. Frear, once secretary of state of Wisconsin, answer the republican roll. William H. Stafford comes back from Milwaukee in place of Socialist Berger, and Charles R. Crisp, son of a former Democratic speaker, recently parliamentarian of the house, is among the Georgians.

Most of these new members are progressive in one or more lines of political thought. Personality will count on the house floor in the advance which the veteran progressives and the new recruits will make, beyond the points to which the White House has directed Democracy to go.

Curiously enough, the senate appears certain to be as responsive to the people as the house itself. For once the states have sent men in touch with new ideas. Lane of Oregon, the most radical of them all, will specialize on a better class of federal judges. Thomas of Colorado is in the equal suffrage movement. Vardaman of Mississippi is the hardest hater of big business in the south. Sheppard of Texas is a Bryan Democrat, as is Shaforth of Colorado. Ollie James of Kentucky and William Hughes of New Jersey are with the administration all the way, as are Walsh of Montana and Hollis of New Hampshire.

Fashion Frills.

The fair sex are at last going to wriggle out of a tight place if it is true that Paris is abolishing the hobble skirt.—New York Sun.

"Futurist fashions" for women are announced. Whether they will mark a turn toward conservatism from the prevailing post-impressionistic style remains to be seen.—New York World.

Only the general spirit of the latest Parisian fashions in painting, not any personal style, is transplanted into the new futurist gowns. The futurist designer does not design a dress; she simply thinks of a dress and then expresses in silks and tucks and hems the emotion which has seized her. That is all.—New York Tribune.

Current Comment.

Denial, conviction, confession, seem to be the three principal phases of police activity in New York these days.—New York Tribune.

The death of another military aviator, a German, adds new emphasis to the risks of this branch of army service. If these are the fatalities of peace what will they be in war?—New York World.

One notable feature of the new cabinet is the contemporariness of the members. The oldest, Secretary of Commerce Redfield, is fifty four, and the youngest, Secretary of Agriculture Houston, is forty-seven.—Indianapolis News.

Chicago has gathered $61,000,000 from 1,924,000 persons who have in the last seven years attended conventions in that city.

The Cookbook.

Fried bananas laid on a bed of rice make a good luncheon dish.

Before frying liver dip each piece in milk, and then it fries a rich brown and is not hard.

When baking potatoes rub dry and grease. This causes the outer skin to peel off very thin, thus saving the most nourishing part.

For a savory omelet add to an ordinary four egg omelet while cooking a tablespoonful of capers and a quarter of a teaspoonful of chopped parsley.

Swat the Fly.

Now the fly is confronted with an insurmountable swatting campaign. Truly it is almost as friendless as the man who forgets to register before an election.—Chicago News.

Owing to the mild winter the house-fly hasn't been frozen to death in the conventional way, and a large crop of summer pests is predicted. You can't keep a pessimist down!—New York Sun.

The New Art.

A cubist foolish virgin ought to have no difficulty whatever in looking foolish.—New York Tribune.

Some of those cubist pictures look like a desperate stagger at taking a snapshot of a nightmare.—Chicago Tribune.

The Society of Futurist Artists, according to its Berlin organ, Der Sturm, is furious because mere dressmakers are using its name in connection with gowns. It wants its name for its own "art" alone.—Exchange.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

A Projectile's Gain of Speed.

Experiments with improved instruments for measuring the velocity of projectiles have shown that the speed goes on increasing after the missile has left the mouth of the cannon. Leaving the muzzle with a velocity of 1,474 feet a second, a projectile has been observed to increase its speed to 1,689 feet a second within the first six feet. It is only after having traveled twenty-five yards that the projectile's velocity becomes reduced to the speed it had on leaving the muzzle. This is ascribed to the impulse of the expanding gas being felt for some distance beyond the cannon's mouth.—New York Tribune.

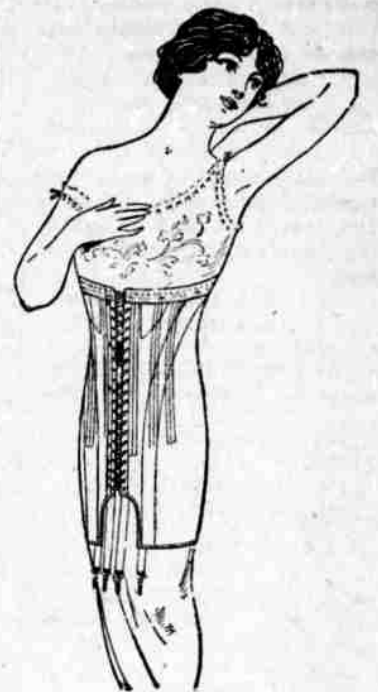

Moisten the Buttonhole.

Every man knows the difficulty and agony of a refractory collar stud. With a breakfast to eat, a train to catch and an appointment to keep, few things are more maddening than the collar which simply will not ally itself to the stud. But few things are so easy to remedy. All that is necessary is to dip the thumb and forefinger in water and slightly moisten the obstinate buttonhole. Then the stud slips in without a murmur.
