SHERRY'S HAS FEATURE SHOW

GOOD FILM ON SCREEN FOR LAST TIME TONIGHT.

Hickok & Otis in Clever Vaudeville Act Receive Applause.

Patrons of Sherry's enjoyed a rare treat last night when one of the very best programs that has ever been shown was enthusiastically received at each of the three performances.

Pathe's Weekly and a strong Edison drama, followed by one of the greatest pictures of its kind that has ever been produced, "The Millionaire Cowboy," you have seen western pictures but this one without doubt surpasses all comparison. It's the greatest ever. This splendid program is rounded out by Hickok & Otis, a vaudeville "Act of Merit," rendering the Holy City, in a beautiful altar, an exact reproduction of the famous Santa Barbara mission and following this with lively songs and jokes that are new and clean which brought them rounds of applause. Tonight is the last chance to see this splendid program.

Pierce Girl Grought to Baker.
(Baker Herald.)

F. E. Pierce left for Oakland last evening and will bring the body of his daughter, Anna, to Baker for burial.

According to a Los Angeles dispatch Annette Pierce, the pretty 19-year old girl from Haines, Oregon, shot down and instantly killed in a desperate battle for life, fought with Georg Uchida a Japanese musician, who was madly infatuated with her, and who later killed himself, was the wife of Frank Orsatti, the 22-year old son of Morris Orsatti, vice president of the International Savings & Exchange bank of Los Angeles.
