Your Declaration Of Independence Have You Made It?

You are the master of your own fate. What is it to be—dependence, poverty and misery, or independence, prosperity and happiness? It is up to you.

Remember there are many degrees between any two extremes. You say you could be in a worse condition. True enough. But are you getting the most out of this life? That's the question.

Undoubtedly not, unless you belong to the Home Owners Fraternity. Whether it be a city residence, a suburban tract, or a country farm there is nothing in life equal to owning your own home. Why? Independence from the landlord, happiness in his security, development thru the responsibility due to increased capital, property created by an inspiring environment—all these belong to the man who owns his own home, and to him only.

EO. H. CURREY REAL ESTATE
La Grande, Ore.

Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask the Newlin Drug company about it, they will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks or money back.

There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer.

But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into luxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it and it never disappoints.

Sold by druggists everywhere, and by the Newlin Drug company for 50 cents a large bottle.

Civil Service Examinations.

The U. S. Civil Service Commission announces that a forest and field clerk examination will be held in this city April 26 1913, for the purpose of securing eligibles from which selection may be made to fill vacancies in the Forest and Reclamation services as they may occur. The salaries paid are from $1200 to $1500 per annum. Employment in the Reclamation service will be in connection with the Sun River and Milk River reclamation projects in Montana, probably at Fort Shaw (a camp town on the railroad), at the Sun River Diversion camp, about 20 miles from the railroad, at Malta, Montana (a town of about 800), and at Vandalla, Montana a diversion camp on the railroad. The work will last for two or three years, and capable and efficient employees will probably be in demand for transfer to some other reclamation project when the present work is finished. There are good prospects of advancement, which is conditional only on demonstrated efficiency.

Applications for forest and field clerk must have a knowledge of sten-ography, typewriting and bookkeeping.

Apply at once to the secretary, Eleventh U. S. Civil service district, Seattle, Washington, for application form 1371.

CURIOUS MANX LAWS.

Food and Drink Alone Are Taxed and Debtors Are Imprisoned.

In some respects the Isle of Man is one of the most backward portions of the British empire. All the revenue is raised by taxes on food and drink. There are no death duties, no property tax, no land tax. The working classes are unprotected as well as over-taxed. No factory laws exist, and no attempt has ever been made to limit the hours of shop assistants, although Manxland is essentially a nation of shopkeepers. Then, although usury is forbidden by law, imprisonment for debt is still legal and is commonly resorted to.

Yet Manx laws, although backward in some respects, are in other ways well advanced. Every woman, widow or spinster, in the Isle of Man, be she owner, occupier or lodger, enjoys the parliamentary franchise. Every widow enjoys half her husband's personal estate and has a life interest in his real estate, and she cannot be deprived of this by will.

The sale of cigarettes and intoxicants to children was forbidden in Man for years before such a prohibition was enforced in England. Englishmen have legislated mildly against money lenders. The highest interest that can be charged in the island is 6 per cent, and that has been the law for over 200 years.—Chicago News.

Ballads of Peculiarities.

Hobson thinks a tariff high
Hurts our people every day.
Jimson says, with doleful sigh,
"We do not conserve our hay!"
Junket holds that bankers gray—
Smooth, round boys with whiskers curled—
Styly take our wealth away.
Isn't this a queer old world?

Plimpton fears that lawyers tie
Knots in justice when they may.
Tisli rises to decry
Bench and jury and their away.
Piker feels that statesmen pay
Heed to Mammon's flags unfurled
And from godly purpose stray.
Isn't this a queer old world?

Tipton swears that men who die
All in paradise shall stay.
Twinkle finds that truths supply
None with reason to be gay.
Tingly thinks we ought to flay
Parsons who have always hurried
Brimstone threats in dire array.
Isn't this a queer old world?

L'ENVOL

Friend, what is your hobby, pray?
By such things our thoughts are whirled.
Take my word, for it, I say,
"Isn't this a queer old world?"

System.

Colonel G. is a fine commander, but not a musician. He sent for the chief musician of his regiment band one day and delivered this scathing criticism:

"I notice a lack of uniformity about the band which must be regulated. Yesterday morning they were out on parade and the largest man in the band was playing a little bit of an instrument—flute or something of the kind—and you had the big drum played by a small man. That sort of a thing doesn't look well and must be attended to. I want the small men to play small instruments, and the big men to play the big instruments. And another thing—I want the trombone players to slide their instruments in and out in unison. It annoys me to see them all out of step with their hands."—New York American.
