

Model 364, Price $3.50.

This is the most extreme corset that has ever been produced at such moderate cost. It brings to the woman who has been obliged to deny herself the satisfaction of a corset approaching the extreme baste of price, the privilege of securing a model the lines of which cannot be questioned when criticised from the standpoint of the latest demand in corsetry.

Model 364 is low in the bust with comfortable fullness over diaphragm, flexible clasps, extremely flat hip and long close fitting skirt, supplied with three sets of hose supporters.

I have a complete line of other models on hand. Prices $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.

Baker Beaten Again by Terrific Score at Boise Yesterday.

North Yakima, April 24.—(Special) Although Nadeau added another home run to his list of achievements in the opening week of the Western Tri-State, the Spuds were unable to stave off defeat principally because of erratic navying by the La Grander. Southpaw Moeller, Pugsley and Browning were individually and collectively wild as jackrabbits, and what they couldn't walk they hit. La Grande's batting however was a big feature, six other swats in addition to the home run being lambasted out by the Oregonians. Of the six errors chalked to La Grande, the most of them were battery errors. The score:

North Yakima	10	7	1
La Grande	4	7	6

Batteries—Kane and Stanley; Moeller, Pugsley, Browning and Peterson.

Ashenfelter Is Beaten
Walla Walla, April 24.—(Special)

	R	H	E.
Walla Walla	2	5	2
Pendleton	1	7	0

Batteries—Kelly and Brown, Krause, Ashenfelter and Waworth. Baker Loses Again.

Boise, April 24.—(Special)—By a score almost as bad as the opener, Baker was beaten again yesterday. The score:

CONVENTION LIST GROWING

STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION COMING.

La Grande Is Chosen Next Meeting Place for About 300 People.

A convention that will bring in the neighborhood of 300 people to La Grande in 1914, has been swung to this city at the business meeting of the annual Eastern Oregon division of the state Sunday School association. The meeting is just now coming to a close in Baker and had close to 300 delegates and many men of prominence as speakers.

La Grande was chosen without serious opposition. In addition to bringing Eastern Oregon people here, the publicity given the convention among Eastern states is material and commercial club circles will be given a material lift in advertising the city next year through this convention.

The local commercial club, the Union county Sunday school association and the a Grande ministerial association sent warm invitation to Baker, and with La Grande people on the scene to care for the movement, La Grande won hands down.

Mr. Daniel Peterman and Miss Ella Bachelor, both of Cove, were united in marriage in La Grande April 23, at the parsonage by Rev. H. P. Nelson.
