Bunched hits off Druhot and costly errors behind him enabled Pendleton to take the first of the series from La Grande by a 9-3 score. Berger was in great form and the Spuds could do nothing with his senders in the latter part of the game when, with victory assured, he eased up and lobbed over the fence. The game was one to nothing affair until the fifth. Pendleton had made one in the second with a hit and two errors. Druhot had been going fine but in the fifth he was touched up effectively. After striking out two and walking one, M'Kune came through with a three packer and was himself scored by Krause's single. Bladen laid one down to third and the man in question was Corbin's head and then when Augustus hit to eck and the new second baseman threw the ball away, Druhot run was counted. When the first three men in the sixth had hit safely and one run had scored, Druhot was yanked for Gooch. A bad throw by Naughton and sacrifice fly put two more across. Homers by Augustus and Rader in the seventh and eighth ended the scoring in the local.

The Spuds took one in the seventh when Naughton singled, went to second on Peterson's infield out, and scored when King delivered a safe one. They started a battling rally in the eighth.

Baker Strong, But Loses.
Walla Walla, May 7.—(Special)—Walla Walla won a warmly contested game five to four from Baker yesterday. It was a pitcher's battle, Baker outthit the Bears, but couldn't get them grouped where they counted. Baker led till the eighth, when Bears tied, and then passed them one. In the ninth Baker tied with a run but Walla Walla won in her half. A bad error by Lundstrom in the fifth let Baker have three runs, the bases having been filled by two walks and a hit by a pitched ball. Walla Walla made most in the eighth by bunching hits. Two crossed the pan. Baker scored first in the fifth. Ward walked, Roben followed with a two-base hit and Ward advanced, to third. Harold tried a sacrifice but Ward was the sacrifice, for he was caught at the home plate. West walked, Snoddy hit dean with a pitch-

AX HACKING CASE DEEP

STORY TOLD BY INJURED MAN

IS SHAKY

Sheriff Hug Expects Development at Union Meeting.

As Sheriff Aug. Hug delves into the mysterious and unprecedented attack on Lee Thompson at Union Sunday night, when a stranger entered his bedroom in the Hutchinson ranch home and commenced to hack at him with an axe, he becomes more convinced that an interesting case will develop. If Thompson sticks to the story he told last night, the officer and his subordinates are confident he can lay his hand on the right fellow at any time, and developments are expected this afternoon. If Thompson does not adhere to the story previously told, the officers have no clew at all. Thompson has been wavering in his verbal recitations on the matter and has thrown the officials into a state of indecision.

ed ball and the bases were filled. Murphy hit a hot one through Lundstrom, who let it go away and three men scored. Baker scored again in the ninth. Herod hit a single to third and came on an error.

THE SCORE:
Walla Walla 11, 0; Baker 2, 1.

BATTERIES—Snoddy and Brown; Ward and Cressman.

Y. M. C. A. CAMPAIGN: Matters of importance looked over and active campaign planned.

Members of the executive committee of the county fair management met last evening to outline plans for the year's work. The meeting was a general one, no specific undertakings being closed up, but the situation as it confronts the managers was gone over.
