GREEN STUFFS
NOW CHEAPER

SEVERAL COMMODITIES SHOW DECLINED PRICES.

New Spuds, Asparagus, Rhubarb and Green Peas on Cheaper List.

The buying and consuming public is constantly looking for something cheaper and among the greenstuffs on the market today there are one or two, yes, even three items that show a tendency toward "cheapness." He Did It.
When Mark Twain was living in Hartford, Conn., where Dr. Doane, now bishop of Albany, was rector of an Episcopal church, he went to hear one of the clergyman's best sermons. After it was over Mark approached the doctor and said politely:

"I have enjoyed your sermon this morning. I welcomed it as I would an old friend. I have a book at home in my library that contains every word of it."

"Why, that can't be, Mr. Clemens," replied the rector.

"All the same, it is so," said Twain.

"Well, I certainly should like to see that book," rejoined the rector with civility.

"All right," replied Mark, "you shall have it." And the next morning Dr. Doane presented, with Mark Twain's compliments, a dictionary.

Heard a Band Play "Dixie."
Sitting on the anxious bench where office seekers roam.

Heard a band play "Dixie," and it made us long for home;

Heard the hills of Georgia callin' through our sighs,

"Come home, you weary wanderers and gaze on brighter skies!"

And every one hummed softly:
"It's home we'd love to see;
A garden spot in Dixie
Is good enough for me."

Heard a band play "Dixie," and far away we went;
Saw the green home pastures and valleys of content;

Still heard the hills of Georgia that story glad repeat,
"Come home, you weary wanderers, where life is aching sweet!"

And every one hummed softly:
"Home's where our hearts would be,
A garden spot in Georgia
Is good enough for me."
—Atlanta Constitution.

A Correction.
A celebrated Irish counselor, as remarkable for his brogue as for his bonnets, being retained against a young officer who was indicted for a very gross assault, opened the cause in the following manner: "My Lord, I am counsel for the crown, and I am first to acquaint your lordship that 'this soldier'—

"Stop, sir!" said the military hero. "I would have you know, sir, I am not a soldier. I am an officer."

"Oh, sir, I beg your pardon," says the counselor very dryly. "To speak more correctly, this officer, who is no soldier!"—Life.

Unmasked.
"Did you ever stop to think what little things betray one's station in life?" said a woman as she watched the crowd come and go in a restaurant.

Two stylishly gowned young women who had just come in had removed their gloves. When they entered every body took notice. When they took off their gloves they revealed cheap rings on their fingers. Had they worn no jewels there would still have been a doubt as to their position. As it was, their knowledge as to the latest cut in gowns did not make up for their deficiency of taste in the matter of jewels.—New York Sun.

Particular.
"Why don't you want to go to Dr. Goodly's church, dear?" said Mr. Hicks.

"Because I don't care to associate with that class of people," replied Mrs. Hicks.

"The last time I went he told them they were all poor, miserable sinners"—St. Louis Post Dispatch.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.
