A Literary Noise.

Her—What's that rasping sound in the periodical room?
 Him—Oh, that's where they are filing the magazines.—New York American.

What is not good for the swarm is not good for the bee.—Marcus Aurelius.

A PERSONAL WARNING

Old age is coming rapidly upon you. You may not realize it; but in this as usual, nature never fails. Old age may be a blessing, a happy, thoughtful and peaceful time; or it may be filled with aches, worry and poverty. It depends upon how you prepare for it.

Nature keeps a Strict Cash Account With You. She only gives you what she is paid for. She gives you ALL that you earn,—no more.

The man who in old age can retire from the busy world and have a home of his own, may pass the last and grandest years of his life in a way enjoyable to himself and greatly beneficial to others. The man who has not saved for old age becomes a dissatisfaction to himself, and often only a burden to others. One good real estate investment is worth a lifetime of labor.
