On Tuesday evening a reception was given at the home of Doctor and Mrs. Richardson in honor of Prof. Charles Berger, who has been a member of the Presbyterian choir the past year. Mr. Berger left for his home in Minneapolis this morning. His many friends regret very much to lose one, who has won favors in musical circles, a good teacher and none regret his going more than his pastor, Dr. A. G. Lane, for in him has he found an able ally. One hundred guests called during the evening and enjoyed the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Richardson in their beautiful home artistically decorated for the occasion, with roses, carnations, tulips and ferns. Ices were served during the evening by Miss Oma Richardson, Miss Lillian Baker and Miss Anson, who were assisted by Mr. Francis, Mr. Spencer, Mr. Joe Williamson and Mr. Hal Bohnenkamp. A most excellent musical program was rendered during the evening.

Spring showers—the sort of showers that portend June weddings—were ushered in Saturday evening, when Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe and Miss Belle Edwards gave a linen and china shower complimentary to Miss N. Lucile Allen, who soon after her present school year returns to her home in Illinois to be married. It was a complete surprise to the motif and quite overcame her usually composed mien. Elegant gifts were bestowed upon the popular high school faculty member who is just now completing her fourth successive year in local schools. Mrs. Ivanhoe and Miss McMillan had decorated the former's home in a very artistic manner, white carnations being the basis of the decorative schemes. The evening was spent informally and to the great pleasure of all. The hostesses had assembled a dozen of Miss Allen's close friends for the occasion and those by whom the bride-elect was so handsomely "showered" were: Mrs. Stella Ingle, Miss Bork, Miss Snook, Miss McMillan, Mrs. C. McMillan, Miss Josephine Kirk, Miss Flora Koch, Mrs. C. M. Humphreys and Miss Blanche Clark.

High school social activities are assuming definite shape now. The junior banquet to the seniors is announced for next week and Tuesday, May 13th, is the day for the publication of The Ommanus, the high school annual edited by the senior class. The book promises to be one of the very best in the state, as the stories, write-ups, jokes etc., are the most varied and representative, the paper and workmanship is of the best quality, and it is profusely illustrated throughout with photographs and drawings. La Grande High will have cause to be proud of her 1913 Ommanus. The price asked by the staff for the annual is just as low as the cost will permit, whereas other school books no better cost twice and three times the amount.

Guests for six tables were entertained at Five Hundred Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Aug. J. Stange at her home on Fourth. Pink and white, the decorative colors, were used with beautiful effect by the hostess and the elegant home was a place of delightful pleasure for the guests. Refreshments in harmony with the decorations and general tone of the function followed cards, and at cards honors went to Mrs. E. E. Kirtley and to Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp.

Mrs. C. W. Noyes and Mrs. Frank Bay will give a reception Monday afternoon from 2 until 5 at the Noyes home, 1501 Adams avenue, complimentary to Mrs. David Bay, who is here from Portland visiting relations and former neighbors and friends. All friends and acquaintances are informally invited in to meet Mrs. Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Scriber were the host and hostess that entertained the Pinochle club at its Tuesday evening session. Honors at cards went to Mrs. Herman Seigrist.

Miss Alice Hill, a member of the senior high school class, is entertaining the girls of her class at an informal get-together this afternoon—the last of a series this school year.

Mrs. M. B. Donahue won honors at the Bridge club meeting Thursday afternoon with Mrs. E. Polack as the hostess.

Miss Margaret Anson was hostess to members of the afternoon Kaffee Klatch Friday afternoon.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by Chauncey E. Bunting, architect, 39 Foley building, up to 5:30 p. m., Tuesday, day May 13, 1913, for the construction of a frame park-keeper's lodge for Riverside park, La Grande, Oregon.

U. Lottes, Eastern Oregon agent for the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co., received a carload of draught beer yesterday and hereafter will have Budweiser draught beer on tap. It has been about twenty years since this draught beer has been on sale in La Grande.

Potatoes and Power.

One foresees the triumph of the potato, unforeseen by William Cobbett not so much as a food, but as a means of motion. Coal is giving out; petrol is going up in price and down in production. The supply of both is limited and must come to an end, but there comes the cheer that alcohol will be the motive force of the future. Petrol and coal may give out, but the earth will always grow potatoes. Potatoes can produce alcohol, and alcohol can drive engines. In the potato we seem to have discovered the secret of perpetual motion.—London Chronicle.

Horsepower of a Lightning Flash.

The "horsepower" of a bolt of lightning which struck a house in Hesse last summer has been calculated by a German scientist at no less than 50,000. The calculation was based upon the fact that the lightning instantly melted two large walls. An electric current of 200 amperes and 20,000 volts might, it is said, have accomplished the work in one second, but the lightning did it in a very small fraction of a second.

Long Hits Help Irrigators.

North Yakima, May 10.—After North Yakima had the game, 5 to 1, in the sixth Boise tied the score and took the game, 7 to 5 in the tenth. Each team garnered 12 hits but Boise batters got more extra bases. Boise scored in the third on two doubles, twice in the seventh on a walk, a double and a single; twice in the eighth on two singles and a double and twice in the tenth on a single, a pass and a double. Yakima scored twice in the third on two singles, a double and an error; twice in the sixth on a hit by pitcher, two stolen bases, a fielder's choice and three singles.

MOMENTOUS TRIP ENDED

WHOLE HOOKFUL OF THINGS DONE BY PRESIDENT.

Three Days Spent on Schedule Trip Brings Many Results.

Eight hundred dollars were saved to the La Grande baseball club for the season, Fitchner, the terrible speed artist who has just been pruned by Nick Williams and who is well known locally, has been signed and is the pitcher for Spuds this afternoon, the playing schedule was switched about in considerable detail, Pat Foley was nicely double crossed by the other directors of the Western Tri-state—and they will hear from him as a result later on—Carl Walters the young Spud first baseman was chastized to the extent that he is on the bench for today without pay for disobeying orders yesterday, Pitchers Gooch and Browning have been released, Pitcher Doty, a whirlwind pitcher late with Portland is being pulled La Grande ward and may be signed, and last but not least, President Pat Foley is back from a trip to Pendleton and Walla Walla that netted among other things the items listed above. That ought to be enough for an ordinary mogul on a month's trip but Patrick did it in three days and what is more he is home with bristles pointed upwards and his fighting clothes on. The news he brings home is generally good. Also he brings the news that many of the directors are up in arms at President W. N. Sweet and his removal was freely discussed at the Walla Walla meeting after the schedule discussion wherein all teams pool hotel expenses when the team is on the road and thereby is saved about $800 to La Grande. P. A. however is not carrying the fight against Sweet and because he was so nicely double-crossed by other directors he does not aim to vote against the removal of and umpires be he'er so rank. All of which indicates that the Spuds have an army at the front perfectly willing to take and give and it won't be all give tither. Because La Grande has had it passed over her in years past is no sign for anything further in that line.

The little capers the president cut at Pendleton is greeted with favor at home for discipline is going to be maintained and a few lessons will do the whole crowd good, not that they all need it perhaps but it will be worth their remembering that they are employed ball players who must do as told.

Notice to Contractors. Notice is hereby given that sealed proposals will be received by Chauncey E. Bidders may submit proposals on concrete and frame part separately or together if they desire. Successful bidders will be required to furnish bonds.
