YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

La Grande needed it; found out it wanted it; decided to get it; and now will soon have it. This is the La Grande Spirit; the spirit that in the next few years will so help the natural advantages of this city as to produce a development greater than in all the past.

La Grande will grow; the country will develop; and the Rip Van Winkle who started his long sleep in 1900 will wake up seven years from today to see what was a country town transformed into a great inland metropolis.

The future of La Grande is the brightest star in the heaven of opportunity. Land values will advance, business will increase, population will grow, and prosperity will reign for years to come.
