

Omnannus Off Press In Fine Shape

THE OMNANNUS STAFF WHICH PRESENTS HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL TOMORROW.

Tomorrow, Tuesday, May 13th, the High School Annual, The Omnannus, edited by the Senior class of '13, will be given to the "world." The greater part of the entire edition is already subscribed for in advance, but a limited amount will be on sale to the public at large. Place your orders with Roy Couch, Milton Stoddard, or any Senior. Also, they will be on sale at the Red Cross Drug Store.

A great amount of work has been put upon this year's Omnannus by all the departments—editorial, business and advertising, humor, athletics, literary and miscellaneous, and also very important, in printing and presswork. As a consequence the L. H. S. Annual it is believed, will be second to none. The book is fully representative of every phase of school activity and reflects the spirit and character of the school more faithfully than any other one feature.

There are individual photographs of the faculty, of the Seniors, and group photographs of the classes, the track team, the football team, and the basketball team, besides various others. There are a goodly number of drawings which illumine the pages. Further description is useless, for the book speaks for itself, and the Senior class feel sure that the entire edition will be quickly sold. The price is fifty cents a copy.

FINGER BENT, SPIRIT HIGH

POPULAR LEADER AND HIS SPUDLETS HOME.

Good Ball Played on Road Wins Popularity With Home Fans.

With a finger that would drive anybody but a ball player over the Blue Mountains to that new institution out from Pendleton, Karl King—His Potentate with the Spuds—is in the city for a two weeks' performance with his Spudlets. The Spudlets themselves are slightly changed about since they left here, and some of the players are new to the fans, but they are all here. The popular manager, however, is denied the satisfaction of shaking hands with the backers here for his finger is double its natural length and crooked and bent and swollen. How he plays at all is something of a mystery.

Moeller's day falls for the opening day and he will probably open the week here. Jamison, who is attracting widespread attention throughout the league, Fitchner, the speed artist signed Saturday and who won yesterday, Druhot, the outfielder-pitcher of St. Louis fame, and Mountain will take care of the pitching this week.

The infield was switched about a little yesterday afternoon and King thinks he is going to be a big improvement. Corbin who is hitting and fielding like a trooper goes to short on the shift. Naughton swings over to second where he is perfectly at home and King and Peterson take turns about at third. This switch seems to fill the gap in the infield, and as long as King's finger permits him to play, will no doubt solve the problem.

King has been universally complimented on the way he and his players went through the first three weeks. No one can say the men haven't been playing good ball and the same sort of ball played on the road, if brought home, will spell something besides a majority defeats. Perhaps no losing team in the league has come up to the warm reception that awaited King and the Spudlets here this morning.

WALLOWA HAS CHURCH

admitted by all in attendance yesterday that the interior was finished in a most handsome manner, indicating the exquisite taste of Father Murphy. The altar is one of his own design, hand carved and elevated to the proper height. The walls and ceiling are covered with stamped steel which is tinted in a most harmonious way. The choir loft in the rear of the church is just large enough to blend with architectural design. Handsome windows presented by different ones complete the beauty of the building.

The basement is large and will contain a modern gymnasium and place for the younger ones to congregate in social functions. Yesterday the basement was used for a dining room and the large crowd of visitors to Wallowa were served with dinner and supper by the Catholic ladies.

It was an occasion of great benefit to all. The Catholic people were pleased to have the visitors and every visitor was pleased to have had the privilege of being present to hear the sacred dedicatory service.

Ten Innings at Walla Walla. Walla Walla, May 11.—In a pitchers, battle lasting ten innings here today, between Kelly and Coleman, the Bears took their fourth game of the series from Baker, score 3 to 2. It was an ideal day and a large crowd witnessed the last game here for three weeks.

The game was filled with spectacular plays, Martin's home run in the fourth with one base, tying the lead obtained by Baker in the first inning, when Roben singled, went to third on West's two bagger and scored on Murphy's single, West scoring later on Brown's error in receiving a throw at the plate from Sheely.

There was nothing doing then until the tenth, when Kelly won his own game by hitting out for two bases and scoring on Harmon's two-bagger. Kelly got better as the game progressed while Coleman weakened, former striking out 11 batsmen altogether against the latter's three. Walla Walla leaves here tonight for Boise where they open for a week with the Irrigators, remaining on the road three weeks.

"DAD" GOES HOME

Irrigators on Way to Boise for Three Weeks' Stay on Home Grounds.

With North Yakima's scalp of yesterday hooked to their belts, the Irrigators passed through the city this morning on their way home for three weeks. They will take on Walla Walla and the coming week will see some changes in the relative standing of the clubs.

"Dad" is as pert as ever and predicts that the season will be going good. He claims to have some strings on Fitchner however, and is free to express it. He refrained to comment, however, on the report that Spokane has called in Bridger, which Spokane can do if he was farmed out and if farmed out then President Sweet is permitting Boise to violate the gentleman's agreement which Sweet, before 100 business men in this city said, three times in a row, would be enforced this year. Some little piece of explanation might go fine along this connection.

Spring Fever.
