PRETTY STORY RUNS THROUGH "FRECKLES"

"Freckles," by Gene Stratton-Porter, the most widely read novel of the past two years, dramatized by Neil Twomey, is announced for May 20th at the Steward.

In the dramatization of this novel, Mr. Twomey has followed the text of the book faithfully, reproducing every important scene contained in the story.

"Freckles" is a pastoral play, beautiful in its simplicity, telling the adventures and love story of a homeless Irish lad in the great Limerlost swamps of Indiana. There is no character in modern fiction endowed with more simple nobility and wonderful sweetness. It is said to be a greater play than it is a novel.

Crosbie Gill, the famous scenic artist, of Wallack's Broadway theatre, New York, has pictured the great Limerlost swamp and its environs with consummate skill, and the electricians and stage mechanics have completed the picture, equal to nature in every detail. As in other cities, "Freckles" will be a dramatic event here.

And again this week it is a La Grande woman. You are not asked to act upon the word of a stranger. The best guidance that is humanly possible to give you—the encouraging word of neighbors, is always given. Diabetes No Longer Feared

Peculiar Action of a Remarkable Remedy in Controlling Liver Action.

There is no need to feel any alarm over the symptoms of diabetes. This disease is apt to be purely a digestive trouble, and for this reason the liver is held largely responsible. The liver is the largest organ of the body, and is not only a mass of thread-like blood vessels, but throughout its entire fabric is intimately associated with the digestive system.

The thing to do is to so stimulate the action of this myriad of blood vessels that each cellular part selects its own essential nutriment by healthy and judicious divine discretion. This is accomplished by S. S. S., the most potent, the most active and the most naturally stimulating blood medicine known. You do not need purgatives; do not be alarmed at the presence of sugar nor of so-called sediment.

Just stick to S. S. S. and bear in mind that this celebrated remedy has such a specific stimulating action on the local cells of the liver as to preserve their mutual welfare and give a proper relative assistance, each cell to the other.

Dropsical tendencies are thus overcome, biliousness soon becomes a memory and jaundice, malaria, affections of the spleen and glandular swellings will be entirely eliminated. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores and for competent medical advice, free, consult by mail the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. Doan's Kidney Pills have helped him greatly. We think there is nothing like them, and wouldn't be without a supply in the house. I advise all kidney sufferers to try Doan's Kidney Pills. You may continue to publish the testimonial I gave after they were first used in our family." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents.
