

MANY BEAUTIFUL AND THRILLING FEATURES

MISS STICKNEY ON HER PERFORMING HORSE

Every circus is always on the alert to add to its performances features that are new, startling and unique.

This season, we are told that in addition to many other conventional features, the Sells-Floto people have enlarged their tent until its seating capacity is 10,000 and that now it is a three ring affair which of course means that it was necessary to hire a great many more performers in order to make the entertainment adequate to its surroundings.

Amongst the new features might be mentioned the famous Royal Scotch Kiltie Band from Toronto, Canada, who it is said have no superior as exponents of Highland dances, folk songs and Celtic music. They were employed by the Sells-Floto people at the earnest request of their many Scotch friends all over this country.

Added to these, are the famous riders, Emily and Emma Stickney, greatest of all equestriennes, Rhoda Royal's troupe of trained horses, Lucia Dora, the bravest woman in the world with her herd of marvelously trained elephants, champion high-jumping horses, forty superlative clowns, Madame Lowande with her flock of trained pigeons and doves, a really pretty and novel feature; all kinds of lofty and ground acrobatics and last but not least the famous Mepristopheles spectacle introducing the most novel, picturesque and startling display in the way of a riding act that Model 364, Price $3.50.

This is the most extreme corset that has ever been produced at such moderate cost. It brings to the woman who has been obliged to deny herself the satisfaction of a corset approaching the extreme because of price, the privilege of securing a model the lines of which cannot be questioned when criticised from the standpoint of the latest demand in corsetry.

Model 364 is low in the bust with comfortable fullness over diaphragm, flexible clasps, extremely flat hip and long close fitting skirt, supplied with three sets of hose supporters.

I have a complete line of other models on hand. Prices $5.00, $6.50 and $8.50.

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are for sale by all dealers.
