"I told you so" prognosticators called the trum yesterday and dissatisfaction at the sending of Mountain to the hill to heave for La Grande in the last game of the present series, expressed at the outset, was found to be well grounded, when "Rocky" allowed himself to be severely drubbed by Walla Walla 7-0. The shut-out was not his fault entirely, but the tremendous beating was. He had nothing on the ball that Walla Walla couldn't solve, walked five men and allowed eight hits, three of which were two baggers and better. He pitched in a listless sort of a way and though the eight men behind were on their toes and fielded well and tight and did all in their powers to stave off the lopsided score, there was no stopping the bunched hits. Mountain was entirely to the bad, and any pitcher at all would likely have held the Bears to fewer runs.

Paddy Welch was introduced to Tri-state by Walla Walla and though he was not particularly wobbly or anything of that sort, the frequency with which he was found and relieved only by the brilliant support the Bears gave him. Eliminate the rabbits' feet the Bears carry and they would have been chased to death after flies and hard-hit infield drives. A large crowd was out and 99 out of 100 of them are panning Mountain calling for his release.

Martini paved the way for the first score, an earned one, when he tripled and came home on Brown's single. This was in the second inning and in the fourth inning Sheely, after a walk, was advanced on Martini's hit into a fielder's choice, Johnson sacrificed and when Welch singled Martini and Shelly scored. Martini figured in the third couplet of scores after a clean double and Johnson's single. Brown sacrificed Johnson, and that "thief" purloined third and likewise the home bag. The infield went to sleep on the first steal and when Johnson came up he exhibited more nerve than the battery thought he possessed and though running pell mell to the plate, Mountain was slow in delivery. King collided with the batter at the same time dropping the ball but Johnson was on the pan, a second successive theft.

In the ninth, Harmon tripled and Sheely's hit scored him and Davis who had been walked just previously.

La Grande had a chance to score in the eighth, but the support behind Welch braced for the occasion. Mountain had doubled, and when Beck got on with an error he stole second, Beck, Druhot and Nadeau went out on infield hits and flies shutting off runs.

Released Pitcher Wins.
 Baker, Ore., May 22.—Jensen pitched his first game for Yakima today, and made good after Baker had released him. Although allowing more hits than the Gold Diggers flingers they never came when they were most needed. Until the seventh inning it looked like Baker's game by a score of three to one, but in that inx frame the Braves annexed seven runs, and two hits were all that were required to do it. Murphy, Gleason and Harrod did the rest by making five bobbles between them in that one inning.

None of Yakima's runs were earned. Their first run was annexed in the sixth. Ford sent an easy one to Gleason who, customarily, booted it, Ford stole second and third, and came home on a sacrifice fly to Reid. Then in the seventh, seven more. Krause was pulled in the seventh and Ward went in. He held the Yaks scoreless in the eighth, but in the ninth hit Jansen, and Grover who was compelled to have Gordon run for him. Both hit men stole bases and came home on Engle's single.

Murphy, the first man up in the fourth for Baker got first on a booted ball by Jansen, advanced to second on Engle's bobble of West's grounder, but went out of Jansen on a fielder's choice by Harrod. West and Harrod scored by Rock's single. In the sixth West hit a three bagger, and scored on Rick's sacrifice. That was the last of Baker's scoring.
