CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE NEARS

Portland, Oregon, May 23.—With the blue sky the only canopy, the second world's Christian Association Conference will be held in Portland June 29 to July 6 in the natural amphitheatre which comprises the field of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club, according to announcement made today by a local committee in charge of the program. The speakers will deliver their addresses from a stand which has been erected in the middle of the field. The stands at the speaker's platform will accommodate ten thousand persons. The natural acoustic properties of the place make it possible for persons in the seats farther away from the speaker to plainly hear what is said on the central platform in a conversational tone.

More than 12,000 delegates and 25,000 visitors of every nationality are expected to attend the conference, according to reports received from chairmen of delegations from all parts of the world. Among the important subjects which will be discussed will be "The Family; marriage and divorce, and topics relating to social purity, intemperance, prison reform, capital and its relation to labor, immigration, emigration, international peace, christianity and public education.
