THE Gossard CORSETS

They're the Best

They lace in front without belts, buckles, bands, straps or other patent contrivance. They naturally, easily, sensibly and comfortably support the abdomen. They are enthusiastically endorsed by eminent physicians for their hygienic qualities.

You will never know the truest union of corset comfort and small style, until you have been fitted to a Gossard. Phone Red 3221 and I will call and give you a trial fitting in your home.

A complete line of Gossard corsets, lace front brassieres, back pads, sanitary belts and many aprons.

High school and grade teachers are rapidly "packing up" and are off for a summer's vacation, many of them to return, others not. Miss Edwards, Prof. Montgomery, Miss McMillan and her mother, Mrs. Clara McMillan, Prof. McEachron, and Miss Hastings, left last evening for Portland and from there go to eastern homes. Miss Kirk and Miss Koch leave later in the week, and Miss Allen plans to go Monday or Tuesday. She will not return. For the next several days grade and high school teachers will be taking their departure.

In a week when school affairs usurped much of social interest, a fitting close was arranged last evening when all the teachers of the city, both grade and high school, tendered a reception to the retiring superintendent of schools, Prof. J. D. Stout, and Mrs. Stout. The reception was held at the home of Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe where several committees of the 40 odd teachers of the city had prepared suitable amusement, delicious refreshments, and decorations of a pleasing sort. The affair drew out many friends of the retiring superintendent and his family and of the teachers in general. In both numbers and elaborateness, it was one of the week's best affairs. At the close of the informal function the teachers presented to Prof. Stout a lovely Masonic emblem watch charm, and presented Mrs. Stout with a lovely bouquet of sweet peas, and before Mr. and Mrs. Stout departed, were wished God-speed in their new location and assured of the warm friendship existing and reminded of the many pleasant weeks of school life that prevailed under his jurisdiction. Mrs. Stout went to Cove today to visit friends and in a few days the family will go to North Yakima to spend the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Seigrist entertained the Pinochle club at its regular social session Tuesday evening. Honors at cards went to L. L. Snodgrass.

Of the many delightful functions of a social nature staged for and by the teachers and senior class during the past 20 days, few could surpass the informal reception tendered to the teachers and class last Thursday evening at Honan hall. The mothers of the students in the class were hostesses at the occasion, and in the neighborhood of 300 were in attendance during the progress of the affair. Music was furnished by an orchestra, and the guests met and greeted the teachers several of whom will not return next year, and the class members. Honan hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion.

Mrs. Kate Hanley entertained complimentary to her daughter, Miss Ethel, Wednesday evening. The guests went from the city to the Hanley home on the river's bank north of the city and enjoyed the evening and dinner immensely and were over-night guests. After a delicious breakfast, the guests returned home highly pleased with the Hanley hospitality. Those who were present were:

Runa Bacon, Enid Stanchfield, Eileen Peare, Opal Rice, Gladys Oesterling and Miss Sarah Smith.

Mrs. Maggie Hermann of North La Grande entertained the Loyal Sisters of the Christian church on Wednesday afternoon. About 20 participated in the informal gathering.

Wyrtton Westering and Robert Pattison entertained at Five Hundred on Friday, May 23, at the home of the latter. Dainty refreshments were served to 16 invited guests. Card honors were won by Vera Joel and Gilbert Hunter. The invited guests were: Charlotte Jones, Harriette Nichols, Vera Joel, Nellie Pickens, Naomi Kirtley, Grace Pickens, Emma Lottes, and Miss Meyer. Mesars. Gilbert Hunter, Clarence Charboneau, Lynne Bohnenkamp, Jess Andrews, Ellis Williamson and Floyd Charboneau.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell W. Cross are in receipt of a very cordial invitation from the secretary of the board of arrangements of "Mr. Cross's Regiment," the old 29th Ohio at their annual encampment, which convenes in August, also that Mr. Cross either bring or send an original poem. Owing to the failing health of Mr. Cross, the journey will be impossible, but Mrs. Cross will comply with the request to send the poem, the title of which will be "Hail to the Boys of '61."

Tuesday evening of this week, the Tuesday Musical membership and Commercial club friends were pleasantly entertained with a splendid program of music, announced earlier in the week and carried out almost as outlined. This is the closing program for the winter's work and during the summer there will be little or no effort to keep up the monthly meetings.

Members of the Tuesday Musical Saturday afternoon chose the officers who will guide the destinies of the club the ensuing year. Mrs. A. S. Geddes was chosen president, Prof. Armstrong vice president, Mrs. F. Wilhelm secretary, Mrs. J. F. O'Connell treasurer, and Miss Bertha Young librarian.

Next Tuesday afternoon the Neighborhood club members will meet to select their officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. President J. T. Richardson announces there will be no program for the day but the annual reports for the club will be read and officers chosen.

The Red Letter day for the Neighborhood club for the entire year is set for one week from Tuesday when the closing event of the season's work will be expressed in a breakfast and a series of after-breakfast toasts at the home of Mrs. Peter Mac Donald.

Mrs. T. J. Scroggin was hostess at the afternoon meeting of the Kaffe Klatch yesterday afternoon.
