Boise, May 28.—(Special)—Mountain went to the hill for La Grande yesterday and before he was taken out, the bases were filled, to be cleared by a three bagger off Jamison.

Bridger was wild at times, but Mountain, who started to pitch for the Spuds, was a whole lot wilder, and in the sixth King had to take him out. He sent Jamison to the rescue with the bases loaded. Blauser drove out a three base hit and put the game on ice for Boise, so Carl sent Collie Druhot to the mound the next inning, saving Jamison for today. Collie was effective for the remainder of the game.

Spuds Start First.
Bridger had trouble finding the plate when he started, and as a result La Grande scored in the first inning. Bridger walked the first two men who faced him. He fanned Nadeau, but King poled the timely hit and scored Corbin. Naughton also tried to come in on the hit, but Winkler's swift peg caught him at the plate.

The Irrigators hit on Mountain in the fourth, when he commenced to waver. Altermatt was passed. Clark neatly sacrificed and Gard smashed a pretty single into left. Altermatt should have scored on the hit, but Winkler, the coacher at third held him there. Gard and Altermatt then tried the double steal. Toots got to second, but Baldy was nailed at third.

Hit in Good Time.
Just when it looked as though the Irrigators had lost their chance to score Case got hold of one and slapped it for a safe hit, scoring Gard. Jack went to second on the throw and from there Winkler drove him in with a clean single.

The Boise infield went bad in the sixth and La Grande scored two runs. After two were out Druhot smashed a terrific hit through the box. Nadeau drew a pass. King hit an easy one to Altermatt. Baldy fumbled it and the nmade a bad throw to second. Before the ball could be recovered Druhot had scored and Nadeau had gone to third. King was caught on the base line, but while Reams and Clark were fooling fifth im Nadeau' scored, and La Grande was in the lead again, 3 to 2.

Mountain Founders.
The same frame saw Mountain's downfall. He walked Altermatt and Clark beat out a beautiful bunt. Gard tied the score with his second hard single for the day. Case forced Gard at second, but Mountain walked Winkler filling the bases. When he walked Bridger he forced in a run and King pulled him for Jamison.

The latter was not fully warmed up and the first thing that happened to him was Blauser. Roy hit a terrific drive into deep center field for three bases, scoring three men. Friene put a short fly into center field, but Blauser hastened and counted on it.

Hits by Walters and Corbin and a pass issued to Naughton filled the bases in the seventh, but there were two gone and Bridger fanned Druhot.

Jamison was shifted to outfield and Druhot pitched the seventh and eighth, holding the locals to one hit. The score:

Walla Walla Wins Opener.
Pendleton, Ore., May 28.—Osborne got his bumps yesterday at the hands of the slugging Bears and Pendleton dropped the opener 9 to 2. Leonard was in great form after his rest except in the sixth when the Bucks bunched four hits for their only scores. The Bruins got to Osborne's slants in the third for three three-bagger which with a pass were good for a trio of runs. Three more hits in the fourth with four passes netted them four runs and an errors with three hits gave them two more in the ninth. The crowd was greatly incensed at Starkell for his seeming one-sided decisions and surged on to the field at the end of the game, threatening to put him in the river.
