LARGE PAYROLL FOR HAINES PRODUCED.

Pretty Wedding Occurs at Haines During the Week.

Haines, Ore., May 29.—(Special) The Farmers' Mercantile Co., have completed a machine shed at the rear of their store adding greatly to the facilities in handling machinery.

R. P. Anderson returned from Connell, Wash., where he was in attendance during the illness and death of his father, Joseph Anderson.

The saw mills are running full force. There are three mills near here owned and operated by J. F. O'Bryant, A. A. Fidler and Gustave Saugestad. The daily capacity is 50000 feet. Seventy-five men are employed in operating the mills. The lumber is being delivered at Haines to J. F. O'Bryant, owner of the wholesale and retail lumber yard.

The planer is being moved two hundred feet east of the present location. The mill will be enlarged and new machinery added. J. F. O'Bryant will construct a warehouse on the old planer site.

Paul Pollman, of the First National, Baker, is acting as cashier for the Bank of Haines during the absence of Mr. Harder.

During the heavy wind Monday, a plate glass was broken in the front window of the Haines Commercial store. Some damage was done to orchards. In localities near the foot hills the alfalfa and grain fields were cut with hail, but the damage was very light.

The warm weather of the past few days together with the rain of last night, caused Rock creek to overflow, making trouble for the farmers in that vicinity, as well as washing out a few bridges in town.

A pretty wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. White. The contracting parties were Miss Lillian Hansen and Rodney W. Cozard. Miss Hansen was a teacher in the schools here during the past year. Mr. Cozard is a prominent young business man of Canyon City. They will make their home in Canyon City and will be at home to their many friends after June 1st. Near relatives and members of the Swastika club, of which Miss Hansen was a loyal member, were present.

Bears Beat Bucks.

Pendleton, Ore., May 29.(Special) Walla Walla bumped Pendleton again yesterday but it was everybody's game until the ninth when a series of bungsles aided and abetted by a couple of hits, a few bunts and a pass gave the Bears four scores, bringing their total up to nine. The best Pendleton could do was to annex four. Harmon's stick figured largely in the victory for his three bagger and homer were responsible for two runs. One of these come in the first but Pendleton bumped Kelly for three runs in the second. An error, a passed ball and a wild pitch gave the Bears another in the third and in the seventh, a single, three bagger and error gave them two more. Pendleton evened it up in their half with a couple of hits and then came Harmon's homer in the eighth and the four scores in the ninth.

London, May 29.—Because of a dispute on the question of seniority, three Selby magistrates went on strike, and the court had to be adjourned while substitutes were found. The duly elected chairman and his supporters immediately left the court and could not be persuaded to return.
