SACRED HEART ACADEMY HOLDS APPROPRIATE CLOSING EXERCISES

Closing the school year yesterday with proper exercises, the Sacred Heart academy graduated several pupils with high honors. The program arranged for the occasion was very entertaining and was enjoyed by a number of the parents of the class members and friends who are interested in the excellent work being done at Sacred Heart.

Opening with "Oregon, My Oregon" sung by the class, the program followed. Miss Edith Adams recited "Virginia" in an earnest manner, showing the elocution training she had received. The pantomime, "Star Spangled Banner" was a stirring selection sung by the girls of the class properly clad in white carrying on their arms the American flag. Miss Eileen Peare in a very able manner rendered a piano selection, "The Dying Poet," which delighted the audience. The vocal solo, "Absent," by day demonstration. Music, singing and speaking. A fine program. HARRY P. NELSON, Pastor.
