

ADDITIONAL SOCIETY

Mrs. W. B. Sargent very delightfully entertained the members of the Five Hundred club Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Gene Moore who left Thursday evening for Colorado points after spending the winter here with Mrs. T. N. Murphy and other friends. Mrs. Sargent had as guests many of Mrs. Moore's intimate friends. At five hundred, Mrs. M. B. Donohue won high score and Mrs. Gertrude Swaney second. Delicious refreshments were served and in every way the event was one of the most important of the week. Roses, peonies and lillies of the valley figured in the decoration.

Mrs. Moore was the motif of another delightful party when Mrs. T. N. Murphy and Mrs. Gertrude Swaney arranged a delightful surprise for Mrs. Moore. This was Tuesday evening. The guests made merry during the evening with cards and participating in refreshments. Godspeeds were extended to Mrs. Moore for during her protracted visit in La Grande she formed many new friends to add to her list of old-time friends formed when she lived in this city a few years ago. Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp won honors at cards for the evening.

Mrs. Lambert and Mrs. Wright entertained the Parkdale club this week at the home of the former. Mrs. M. S. Carroll presided at the meeting which was an open session and attended by about 35. Each member responded to the roll call with appropriate quotations and this was followed by very interesting "minute talks." The program consisted of the following numbers:
Vocal solo and encore Mrs. Geddes
Reading Mrs. Lee Humphrey
Vocal solo Mrs. C. P. Ferrin
Reading Mrs. Metcalf
Luncheon was served and all went away praising the hostesses' abilities.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Holmes entertained the Sans Souci club and several special guests Tuesday evening. The card-honors went to Mrs. Delle Green and to C. M. Lockwood, members of the club. Among the special guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Wood, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis and Mrs. O. B. Prael of Portland who is a guest in the city with the Wood family.

The Union horse show, attracting as it did, scores dall from La Grande, could not stop a large number of very pleasant social functions though most of them occurred earlier in the week. Society was busy with breakfasts and card parties for the first three days of the week's surprises and complimentary functions being numerous.

The Union stock show interfered with the afternoon division of the Kaffee Klatch this week. Mrs. Aug. J. Stange was to have been the hostess yesterday afternoon but on account of the horse show the meeting was postponed one week.

Mrs. J. C. Gulling was a delightful hostess to the Bridge club this week, honors at cards going to Mrs. William Allinson.
