BEN HUGG BURIED

Resident of Summerville Dies of Heart Failure.

At his home in Summerville, Ben Hugg, a well known resident of that section died from an extended attack of heart trouble last Sunday evening. Mr. Hugg has been troubled in this way for over two years and about a month ago was forced to his bed, from which time he gradually declined until the hour of his death, Saturday night. Mr. Hugg was 38 years of age and leaves his wife, Emma Slack Hugg, and his brother August Hugg of La Grande. The deceased was very well known throughout the county, which fact was well attested by the large attendance at the funeral held in Summerville Tuesday afternoon.

ALL MEN "RUBBERNECKS"

Woman's Dress Such as to Compel Attention of All.

Washington, June 11.—"All men are rubbernecks" declared Chief of Police Peterson of Oakland, Calif., at the chiefs convention on styles of women's dress, and advisability of stamping out the tango and turkey trot. Any normal man would rubber to see woman's dress chopped at neck, ankle split up to knee, and fitting like a glove.

YOUR BEAUTY SECRET

How Can I Keep My Youthful Looks

How can I hold or improve my beauty; how can I keep my skin deliciously clean? Just as soon as a woman stops trying to solve those three problems just so soon does she begin to be less attractive, and hence have less influence in this world. Something must be used by every woman to overcome the effects of time, work, worry, social duties, and yes, the evils of unseen pore-dirt. Pompeian Massage Cream offers the easiest, safest and most natural means for aiding nature.
