

WALLA WALLA'S FLOAT PENNANT

CHAMPIONS OF LAST YEAR DO
HOMAGE TO PENNANT GODS

Bears Make Three Good Meals of Spuds—Yesterday Game 5 to 2.

With the 1912 Western Tri-State League pennant, the first championship flag ever won by a Walla Walla team, floating proudly over the park, where it was raised before the game with appropriate ceremony, the Bears administered the third consecutive defeat to La Grande, again demonstrating the champion calibre.

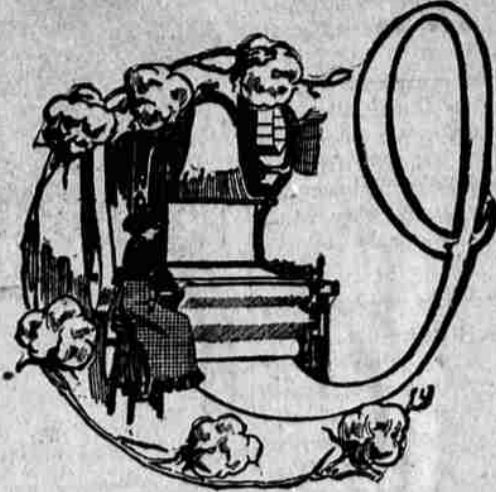

It was not too much Leonard and it was not too little Fitchner that won the game. It was simply the aggressive offense and the wonderful, spectacular defense of Manager Bade's machine.

After both teams had been photographed in a semi-circle in front of the grandstand by a revolving camera, the players formed two lines in V shape from the flag pole on center field fence, and Umpire Richardson gallantly bore the pennant down the field to the pole, assisted by three little girls, the Misses Brown and Childers.

Prolonged cheering from the 800 fans present followed and arriving at the pole, the flag was attached and run up on the halyards, after which the little girls pulled the string which allowed its beautiful folds to waft upon the breeze.

Then the game was off, La Grande came near scoring in the first inning Druhot walking with one down and being advanced to third or Nadeau's hit, but Corbin failed to deliver.

Harmon bowed to the flag in the Bears half and promptly lifted the ball over the left field fence, much to the discomfort of one Fitchner. The Pennant Gods realized then that they had made no mistake in honoring the Bears.

There was little doing then until the fourth, when the Bears earned another run on Johnson's single and Brown's sacrifice fly, Johnson stealing two bases meanwhile.

In the fifth the Spuds tied the score, but the situation was not critical because the locals could not be denied victory on his occasion. Walters opened the inning with a single, but was forced out at second, on Fitchner's grounder. The latter then stole second, took third on Martini's error of Beck's fly, and both men came in on King's hit.

The Bears scored another in the sixth, Martini singling and Johnson hitting for two bases. They got two more in the eighth. Fitchner hit Martini and Sheely hit. Both advanced on King's passed ball and scored on Johnson's second two-bagger in the game.

On Pugilistic Map Again.

Butte, Montana, June 13.—Montana comes back to the pugilistic map again tonight when two fights are staged here. Fighting Bob Moha and Jack Dillon meet at the Copper City club and Eddie McGoorty and Jimmy Clabby fight at the Treasure State club. Both scraps are scheduled to go 12 rounds. There are the first two matches of any importance to be staged in Montana since the passing of the law legalizing boxing by the last legislature. Today is Miners' Union day, the biggest holiday of the year in Butte and both matches are expected to draw capacity audiences.

Bishop O'Rielly of Baker City arrived in La Grande this morning for a brief visit here as the guest of Father Driscoll.

THREE 13'S REIGN TODAY

SUPERSTITIOUS HOULD WORRY
THIS DAY.

Not for One Hundred Years Will One
Write Dates '13-13-Fri.

If any La Grande citizen got up this morning with a peculiar foreboding that something unpleasant was going to happen; if you had the bad luck to get out bed this morning of all mornings with your left foot first; if you intended popping the question to the lady of your dreams today—beware. This is a bum day to start anything you want to have luck with, for it's Friday the Thirteenth. That isn't such a rarity in itself, for there have been numerous other Fridays the Thirteenth in the past few years. This Friday the Thirteenth of today, however, is peculiarly potent for evil in its make-up.

Today is the only day of the present year when the thirteenth of the month will fall on a Friday. It will be at least 100 years before you will get the combination of Friday the Thirteenth in the thirteenth year of a century, so when you write June 13-13 today, be careful to cross your fingers to keep off "de conjuns."

DUTY.

I slept and dreamed that life was beauty.
I woke and found that life was duty.
Was the dream, then, a shadowy lie?
Toll on, sad heart, courageously.
And thou shalt find the dream to be
A noontide light and truth to thee.
—Ellen Sturgis Hooper.

SAID OF WOMANKIND.

An old coquette has all the defects of a young one, and none of her charms.—Antonie Dupuy.
It is to woman that the heart appeals when it needs consolation.—Charles Albert Demoustier.
The brain women never interest us like the heart women. White roses please less than red.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.
Maidens, like moths, are ever caught by glare.
And Mammon wins his way where seraphs might despair.
—Lord Byron

A woman for a general and the soldiers will be women.—Latin Proverb.

STRIVE AND WAIT.

Strive, yet I do not promise
The prize you dream of today
Will not fade when you think to grasp it
And melt in your hand away.
But another and holier treasure
You would now perchance disdain
Will come when your toll is over
And pay you for all your pain.
Wait, yet I do not tell you
The hour you long for now
Will not come, with its radiance vanished
And a shadow upon its brow.
Yet far through the misty future,
With a crown of starry light,
An hour of joy you know not
Is winging her silent flight.
—Adelaide A. Procter.

Unable to Agree, Jury Dismissed.

(Pendleton E. O.)

After having been out for 12 hours and unable to unite upon a verdict the jury in the case of Bowlsby versus the Pacific Power and Light company was dismissed at 11 o'clock last night by Judge R. S. Bean, of the federal court. The jury had been out since 11 o'clock in the forenoon and late in the afternoon had asked the court if a verdict could be returned by 11 men with the twelfth man dissenting. They were informed such could not be done and were urged to agree if possible. However the twelfth man evidently remained obdurate and consequently the jury was discharged without a verdict having been returned.
The disagreement of the jury occasioned surprise as a verdict in favor of the plaintiff was anticipated. The testimony tended to show the liability of the company and the instructions of the court were of such a nature as to lead to expectation of a verdict for Bowlsby.

With the conclusion of the Bowlsby case the federal court cleaned up its business here for this session and Judge Bean and others left for Portland on train No. 17 today. Others in the party were E. A. Johnson, chief deputy district attorney, Marshall Leslie Scott, Clerk Fred Drake and Deputy Marshall Becker.
