That Crop Is Endangered.

Cove, Ore., June 17.—(Special)—Strawberry picking started the latter part of last week, and is in full swing this week. There is a larger demand than ever for outside help, in fact help is so scarce in some places that the growers are afraid they will not be able to harvest their crops.

The Cherry Fair association held a meeting last Monday evening. Al Daniel was elected manager; he was

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

No Doubt.
Ohio now has a stringent corrupt practices act, which aims to do away entirely with the use of money in politics. In speaking of the emancipation of prominent men from the necessity of making contributions to every public enterprise and selfish person, Judge William E. Scofield of the Buckeye State tells this story:

"It reminds me of Jim Fisk, the railroad king of the seventies. Jim always gave freely to the institutions in the little town from which he came. His name was on every subscription list, but he balked one day when he was asked to send $100 for putting a new fence around the village cemetery. In denying the request he wrote:

"I don't see any use for a fence around a graveyard. Those on the outside don't want to get in, and those on the inside can't get out."

"I told this story to an Englishman last year when I was abroad. After rummaging a few minutes he said: "Aw, I think your Mr. Fisk was about hawf right; really I do!"—The Popular Mar

NIGHT SONG.
The moon is up in splendor,
And golden stars attend her;
The heavens are calm and bright;
Trees cast a deepening shadow,
And slowly off the meadow
A mist is rising silver white.

Night's curtains now are closing
Round half a world, reposing
In calm and holy trust.
All seems one vast, still chamber,
Where weary hearts remember
No more the sorrows of the dust.
