UNIQUE DAY IN IMNAHA

SOCIALISTS' DAY TO BE BIG AFFAIR.

From Far and Near, by Horseback and Afoot, Is Purpose.

Enterprise, Oregon, June 18.—(Special)—The summer school in Enterprise will close in two weeks the first of which is to be devoted to harder study and the second to examinations. The following have been attending: Irene Sargent, Eva Hayes, Wallowa; Beatie and Elba Conley, Flora; Lora Kooch, Alder Slope; Pearl Woods, Summerville; Maude Bell, Forry; Maude Weaver, Audrey Combs, and Etta Miller, Enterprise; Fannie and Mary Braughton, Paradise; Vesta Puderbaugh and Fred Himelwright, Fruit; C. C. Ghormley, Powatka; Barbara Sasser, Enterprise.

Sunday was children's day and it was observed by every one in the morning or evening services. At the Enterprise opera house beginning at 7:30 the following program was rendered to a large and appreciative audience: Song and march by the sixty children, tableau, anthem by the choir, invocation, Rev. Plans are being rapidly finished by which every resident in Wallowa county may participate in the celebration of the 137th anniversary of the Independence of the United States. As usual there will be a great celebration at the head of Wallowa lake, supplemented by one day of various sports in Joseph.

The Socialists will hold their annual picnic which they considered such a success last year, in Hurricane canyon. Imnaha will be the scene of an enormous gathering and the celebration will continue two or three days. People from Chico, The Buttes Zumwalt, The Park, The Divide Snake river, and the entire Chesnimus will journey to Imnaha by wagon and on horseback as they have annually done for many years past. A great many of the residents in the above sections make the Fourth not only a red letter day in celebrating and rejoicing, but also look forward to it as the day on which they can greet many friends, which they do not see the entire year around.

The hospitality of the Imnaha people is known far and wide and many visitors from outside counties spend the Fourth as their honored guests.

Flora will give her annual giant celebration, assisted by Promise.

The great public picnic will be held at the mouth of Hurricane canyon and the free dinner of strawberries, sugar and cream, will be served as usual. This undoubtedly will be a grand success since there is no lovelier spot in all Oregon. The "Switzerland of America," is a fitting place in which to celebrate the birthday of our national Independence as it fur-
