London Papers Subject of Bilk.

London, June 19.—London newspapers today have awakened to the fact that they have been victimized to the extent of many dollars by an entirely new game—that of plant a "bomb," covered with suffragette literature, in some public place, and then "find" it, and after turning it over to the police, run to a newspaper office and sell the "story" as an exclusive. Many newspapers throughout England have fallen for the stunt and today the police are on the lookout for dozens of "bomb finders."

ED. WRIGHT'S LUCK. Court House Bunch Say Follow Mr. Wright for Luck.

"Follow Ed. Wright if you want to banish the hoodoo and be lucky," is the accepted statement over the court house today. And here is the why of the statement. This morning Deputy Sheriff Hal Rees, Abstractor Claude Lockwood and Ed. Wright started for Elgin in a machine. Two miles out of La Grande Mr. Wright found that he had forgotten his fishing license, or some other necessary paraphernalia, and he asked Mr. Rees to right about face the iron monster. This was done and as the machine got opposite the garage the rain began to fall in torrents and the boys decided no Elgin trip for them today. "If I had not Ed. Wright along," said Hal Rees. "I'll bet a spark plug to a leaky valve I would have been out in the Sand ridge country trying to put chains on the hind wheels about now, but Ed's luck saved us all from a wet trip."

The Test of Time

Time determines whether the policies under which a bank is operated are safe. This bank has been in business twenty-six years. It has grown steadily until it has become one of the strongest and most prosperous financial institutions in the West. The soundness of its policies is attested by the long list of conservative business men who transact their business here; also by an earned surplus of $130,000.00, the work of time and the result of conservative management. This bank has facilities for taking care of more high grade business and offers its services to those who appreciate the best in banking.
