BOOSTER HERE FROM BAKER

NEW PUBLICITY MAN OF BAKER
VISITS LA GRANDE.

Says Fourth of July Celebration There is to Be the Best Ever Heard of.

Boosting the American Eagle in a way that one could almost hear the patriotic orator and the firecrackers; waving Old Glory until the folds of red, white and blue stood out before you, causing a thrill of old-time patriotism to tingle up and down the spine. Walter E. Meacham, new publicity man for the Baker Commercial club, visited La Grande last evening in the interest of the Fourth of July celebration which Baker will have this year. He came with posters and good cheer both of which were scattered freely.

"We are going to shoot off a big one," said Mr. Meacham to the Observer. "Nothing like it has been held in Oregon since the early days when celebrations of the natal day were the chief annual attractions. Baker holds to the good old fashioned idea that everything is founded on American Independence and we believe once each year Eastern Oregon country should pull off a rousing celebration of the great event. We like all the new forms of entertainment provided in late years but we also like to hear the life and drum, to see the colors wave and hear the Fourth of July speaker clear his throat, and between the squeak of the toy balloon, the music from the merry-go-round and the din of firecrackers tell about the cattle with the golden horns. And that is the very kind of a blowout we are going to have in Baker this year. Yes, they are coming from Boise, from the Seven Devils, from John Day, from La Grande, from Joseph and from Pendleton. We will make a two-day event of it, for we could not possibly get through in one. And we want La Grande people all to come. This is once when there is no latchstring on the Baker door—for it is wide open to all. Come in full dress suits or overalls, it makes no difference to us, for Baker is going to entertain everyone in a way that will be pleasing."

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "Rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by all dealers.
