

Ice Famine Follows.
Cincinnati, June 20.—The city went into the ice business to alleviate suffering resulting from the strike of 35 drivers. Police stations and fire houses were turned into ice depots. The city bought the whole output of several plants and will sell at cost or distribute free to suffering poor. Engineers and firemen in many plants may strike in sympathy with drivers. Dealers threaten to close the plants rather than to yield to demands.

ENTERPRISE NEWS BRIEFS

PERSONAL MENTION FROM WALLOWA CAPITAL.

Mention of Those Going and Coming Into Wallowa County.

Enterprise, Ore., June 19.—Miss Ellie Ault has returned from Seattle where she has been attending the state university. Two years ago, Miss Ault graduated with honors from Baylor college, Texas, and is the daughter of Dr and Mrs. C. A. Ault of this city.

Mrs. T. Mahoney returned on Sunday's train from Portland where she has been visiting for the past week, having also spent one week in Seattle.

Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Hockett and three children have gone to their homestead northeast of Enterprise, where Mrs. Hockett and the children expect to remain during the summer.

Vernon Corkins of this city, a senior in the Oregon Agricultural college, is at present in Camas, Wash., where he holds a highly salaried position with the Northwestern Electric company. He is the elder son of former County Judge C. M. Corkins, of this county.

David Reavis arrived on Tuesday's train from Walla Walla where he attended Whitman college the past year.

Mrs. Marion Langston of Alder Slope was visiting friends in this vicinity Wednesday.

J. E. Gump, wife and two children are in Enterprise from Sandpoint, Idaho. Mr. Williamson of Newport, Wn., a brother of Mrs. Gump, and also the latter's nephew, Harvey Sanborn of Spokane, came with them. They made the journey by wagon and are looking for homesteads in Wallowa county. At present they are staying in the Maxwell property.

These settlers are only a few of the many who arrive every week from every state in the union. The productivity of the soil and the healthful climate of Wallowa county are bringing hundreds of inhabitants to this section of the county. In the far eastern states the name "Wallowa" is the synonym for prosperity and wealth. It is the Mecca of those sturdy people who desire to bring to themselves and their descendants a heritage of peace and prosperity. They are wide awake, earnest, public spirited people, and they give the best they have to their county and for its prosperity.

Mrs. Weldon Mitchell of Joseph is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton for a few days.

Mrs. Henry Fletcher has gone to Portland to visit relatives. From there she will go to the Willamette valley to visit her mother.
