OLD TIMERS HOLD FEAST

PIONEERS OF WALLOWA COUNTY MEET ANNUALLY.

Second Annual Conclave Set for Saturday at Lake Wallowa.

Wallowa, June 21.—For nine innings, Culver, the spitball artist of Wallowa, allowed Enterprise but two hits. They were kept so far apart and the Wallowans gave their unsanitary "shoot slinger" such perfect support during the nine innings that the Enterprise team did not score until the umpire handed them the tying runs, and then until the 12th inning, after many thrilling plays the potency of the Enterprise "war clubs" was realized and scored two runs, thus finishing the series between Enterprise and Wallowa after one of the most hotly contested games of the season, marred by the questionable decision of the umpire.

The second annual meeting of the Wallowa Pioneers association will occur in Wallowa Lake Park, Joseph, on Saturday, Excursion rates on the branch line will be in effect. The association was formed and their first meeting held the fourth of last July in Wallowa. The officers are as follows; F. D. McCully, Joseph, president; Henry Schaeffer, Wallowa, vice president; John McDonald, Wallowa secretary and treasurer. Only those who were residents of the county at the time of its organization in 1887 are eligible to membership.

A shipment of two crates of young China pheasants have been sent here from the state game farm of Corvallis, the recipients being C. B. Walker and H. W. Harris, who will be the custodians of the birds until they are capable of caring for themselves. Harry Telaford, game distributor states that six more crates are on the way to the game reserve east of Wallowa.

Two cub bears, captured at Flora and purchased by Thomas Siegmund of Wallowa, arrived today. He intends shipping them east.

The Elgin Dramatic club made its initial appearance at the Wallowa opera house Monday night, presenting to a well filled house, "The Brand of Cain." Owing to the fact that some of the "dramatis personnae" were unable to make the trip, and in order not to disappoint the people, substitution was made at the last moment. "The Brand of Cain" is a strong and beautiful story and is only made possible because of the tremendous mystery of a "Sothern" [illegible] everything acquitted themselves nicely. If honorable mention were possible, Robert [illegible] Hugh [illegible] and Alfred Oswald deserve distinction. We hope to see the Elgin Dramatic club back again with a lighter topic which will give them a field for greatest success.

Mrs. Brown and Miss Hallgarth of Elgin were visiting friends in this city Sunday.

Ed. Hedican of Palmer Junction was in Wallowa, between trains, on Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Anderson, June 14, a son.

Miss Delia Brown arrived Friday from Palouse, Wash., on a few weeks visit with friends.

Miss Mona Dougherty came home last Wednesday from Eugene, where she has been attending the Oregon university.

C. H. Mimnaugh left Saturday for a few days stay in Portland.

By reason of the greater facilities afforded of handling the increasing business at Minam, the O.-W. R. & N company shifted their depot opposite the old site.

L. Couch is the possessor of a new Ford automobile. The machine arrived last Saturday.

Bruce Cox and W. C. Marsh made a business trip to Flora and Troy Friday, returning Sunday.
